

NATURAL BEAUTY SPOTS OF THE NORTHLAND—WOOD AND WATER PICTURES OF THE RUGGED WILD

THE START-OFF—BOATING SCENE ON LAKE STURGEON, A FAVORITE STRIP OF WATER WITH CAMPERS.

BEACHING THE CRAFT—CANOEISTS RETURNING TO CAMP AFTER AN EVENING ON THE WATER.

FENELON FALLS—A PRETTY DROP OF WATER, WHOSE MUSIC CAN BE HEARD FOR MILES.

PARTING OF THE WAYS—A DIVIDING POINT IN FENELON RIVER—A STRIP OF BLUE WATER BETWEEN WHITE BANKS.

ENTRANCE TO BOBCAYGEON LOCKS AND T. V. N. BOATS.

PARTY OF TORONTO RAILROAD MOGULS AND THEIR BIG CATCH OF PIKE AND BLACK BASS.

WHARF AT STURGEON POINT—AWAITING ARRIVAL OF MAIL BOAT.

STURGEON POINT—A PICTURESQUE STRIP OF LAND, CROWNED WITH OAK AND BEECH TREES.

A DART ACROSS THE LAKE—CANOEISTS CROSSING KAWARTHA'S WATERS UNDER FULL SAIL.