ONCE MORE THE PROOF IS GIVEN

That Dodd's Kidney Pills Cure
Even Inherited Ill-Health.

Charles Dayton Suffered From Early Youth But the Old Reliable Kidney Remedy Banished His Ills and Made Him Strong.

St. George, Man., June 2.—(Special).— Yet another case in which ill-health inherited from parents has been vanquished by Dodd's Kidney Pills is that of Mr.
Charles Dayton, a farmer well known in this neighborhood.
"I suffered from a number of ills from an early age," says Mr. Dayton, who is now thirty-two years old. "I inherited my trouble from my parents. I was weak, nervous and run down. I suffered from backache and my muscles would cramp. I had a heavy dragging sensation across the loins. I was always thirsty; I had great difficulty in collecting my thoughts, and my memory was failing me." "I was altogether in a bad way when I started to use Dodd's Kidney Pills, but they helped me almost from the first box.
They gave me strength and helped me so much in every way that I am satisfied a little longer treatment will make me a well man."

Mr. Dayton's symptoms were the symptoms of Kidney Disease, and Dodd's Kidney Pills cure every form of Kidney Disease, no matter what stage it is in or how it is contracted.

A SPLENDID CONCERT

Boston Sextette Heard in Delightful Programme in St. John's Church School Room.

A concert of unusual merit and which must be regarded as an artistic triumph for those taking part in the performance, was given by the Mendelssohn Philharmonic Sextette, of Boston, in the school house of St. John's (Stone) church last evening. The instrumentalists were assisted by Miss Evangeline Hiltz, a lyric soprano, who was also heard to great advantage. The entertainment, which was under the direction of Dr. Arnold Fox, was attended by a large fashionable audience.
Mr. Fox was the recipient of many congratulations on the success.

The numbers on the programme were well chosen and were played with faultless execution which elicited frequent en-cores. Particular mention may be made of Tchaikowsky's Andante Cantabile by the string quartette, a violin solo by Henry Eichler and the cello playing of Herman Hecker. Mr. Hecker, who was for some years a member of the Emperor of Germany's orchestra, showed a perfect mastery of the instrument.

Miss Hiltz, besides singing two classic numbers, delighted the audience with Comins' Through the Rye and Annie Laurie, and was recalled again and again. W.
W. Swannabourne, the director of the society, in which he plays second violin, recently completed twenty-six years with the Boston Symphony Orchestra, and has now retired under the pension act. He is a musician of wide experience and was for many years associated with the leading orchestras in London before coming to America.

OBITUARY

Miss Margaret Shonoman

Miss Margaret Shonoman, aged thirty-four, died yesterday at her home, 70 Somerset street, after a comparatively short illness. Walter Shonoman, her brother, who suffered from an injured knee, was compelled to have the limb amputated in the General Public Hospital some weeks ago and is still confined to that institution.
Miss Shonoman is survived by an another brother and her mother, Mrs. O.
Martin, of George street. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 2.30.

Miss Sarah M. Walker

On Saturday, May 29, 1909, after an illness of partial paralysis of nine weeks, Miss Sarah M. Walker died at the home of her niece, Mrs. Havlock Wilcox, aged seventy-six years. She was the last of a family of seven and was the youngest child of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Walker, and was of Loyola descent. She was born here in the parish of Norton on Jan.
14, 1833, and during the last twelve years was an inmate of the house at Mr. H.
Martin, of George street. She became a member of the Baptist church in her sixteenth year.

The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon, May 30, and was conducted by Rev.
C. G. Pincombe. Interment was at Riverview cemetery. The large attendance, though a stormy day, bore testimony to her worth. The pall-bearers were grandchildren of the deceased, and were Herbert Walker, Oscar Wilcox, Clarence Walker and Heber Wilcox. The funeral was directed by Underbaker Thos. Farmer, of Bellefleur Creek, on request of deceased lady, he having acted at the funeral of all the other members of the family. Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox wish to express their gratitude to friends who assisted in so many ways in caring for the wants of the deceased lady. The floral tributes were beautiful.

John Brennan

The death of John Brennan, a well known resident of Fairville for the past thirty-five years, occurred yesterday at his residence, 70 Main street, after a long illness. Mr. Brennan, who was in his seventy-third year, was born at Golden Grove. He married Miss McGuire, who survives him. He also leaves two sons, Albert and Joseph, and two daughters, Miss Teresa and Miss Julia, all residing at home. The funeral will take place on Saturday morning at 8.45 o'clock at St. Rose's church, where requiem high mass will be celebrated.

Mr. Kirk Brown.
Tonight Kirk Brown will open his special return engagement at the Opera House, presenting "Sappho," conceded to be one of the strongest plays in his repertoire. There will be a special matinee tomorrow afternoon when Sarah Bern-hardt's version of "Camille" will be given.

REV. DR. LYLE IS MODERATOR OF PRESBYTERIAN ASSEMBLY

Rev. Dr. Duval Retiring Moderator in an Address to Presbyterian General Assembly at Hamilton Urges That the Church Be Made More Attractive to Enlist the Services of its Young Men

Hamilton, Ont., June 2.—Though many of the 285 commissioners expected had not arrived tonight, there was a large congregation at the opening service, which was conducted by Rev. Dr. T. Sedgwick, Tetamogouche; Rev. Dr. Robert Campbell, Montreal; and Principal Patrick, of Winnipeg.

Dr. Duval's sermon, which was delivered with great impressiveness by Principal Patrick, was a powerful appeal to the church to abandon metaphysical distinctions and mechanical dogma, to seek the guidance of the spirit of God and adapt itself to the needs of the age.
Dr. Duval took for his text, John 16, 12: "I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. Howbeit, when the Spirit of Truth is come, he will guide you into all truth." The disciples were about to begin the greatest work ever undertaken for humanity. It is the infancy of the church.
Jesus is ready to accommodate his truth to the capacity of men. He cannot press upon undeveloped minds a mass of untimely dogmas. As the pupil is led from arithmetic to algebra and on to the higher mathematics, by the superior mind, as it grows into ability, so the church must pass away her "sempiternal" dogmas, and be guided by the Spirit into the future.

The failure to recognize this fixed correlation between the growing soul and the guiding Spirit has been the source of interminable troubles in the world. It has caused the prophets, rejected the Light of the World, alienated reason from religion, turned fields of faith into intellectual deserts and left souls groping in darkness. We must recognize that the Spirit is leading the church into clearer understanding of truth as it is able to bear.
We see in Paul a wonderful advance from his Jewish childhood to the deep understanding of the truth. We also must put away our "sempiternal" dogmas, and be guided by the Spirit into
the future.

This is an age of critical mind, of uncommon difficulties and yet, thank God, it is an age that is not content with itself. This is a hopeful sign. Men are struggling to free themselves from ills of the past, and are seeking the truth.
The church must be able to bear the burden of truth as it is able to bear.
The church must be able to bear the
burden of truth as it is able to bear.

Are we doing our best to put men into office of the ministry who are capable of bearing the guidance of the Spirit into all truth? Men who have done the great work of God in the world, have been men of great natural force, stimulated by circumstances. If we have gotten dry and shallow and uncertain about the verities of our religion, then we must hush off the dry, and dig deep into its reality, its scientific worth in lifting the soul, and then by all the value of the soul and the general well-being of man press its claims upon the children of men. When there is a great cause, our young men volunteer by the thousands.

I am compelled, therefore, to believe that there is something wrong with the conduct of the church today, that she does not attract the noblest of her sons to her standards. Is she presenting a cause in all points worthy to attract? Our youth have their sense of nobility. They are ready for trials. But when they feel that their work is shorn of its glory, that they are not sent to sweep the field against the foe, but into a cheap rivalry that has no apostolic warrant or heroism, and for which many do not honor them, then it

MILLIONS OF CELLS.

The human body is composed of countless millions of cells. These cells are constantly making and new ones are being created. Dead cells are removed from the blood by the bowels, kidneys and skin.
These great eliminating organs filter this waste matter from the blood, and thus purify the blood.

If there is Constipation, or non-action of the bowels, or if the kidneys are strained or weakened—if there is defective skin action—then the dead cells are not removed from the body. The blood thus becomes loaded with impurities, and we suffer for it.

The only way to purify the blood is to keep the skin, bowels and kidneys. When these organs are healthy and doing the work as nature intended them to do, the waste matter is promptly removed and the blood is kept pure and rich. "Fruita-tives"—the famous fruit liver tablets—act directly on the skin, the bowels and the kidneys. "Fruit-a-tives" purify the blood because they keep the whole body strong, vigorous and healthy. 25c a box, 50c for $2.00, or trial box, 25c. At dealers or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

THE PRESBYTERIAL

Yesterday's Sessions Were Largely Attended and Full of Interest

The three sessions of the Presbyterian yesterday were well attended, and of a very interesting nature. The meetings continue today.

The third session was held at 2.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The meeting opened with devotional exercises, led by Mrs. M.
J. McPherson.

Mrs. Robert Jamieson, in her address as president, spoke of the importance of home and foreign mission work and said each should receive the earnest attention of all mission workers. In the meantime provinces there were more than fifty places where there were no churches established or services held. And in twenty-five of these there were from forty to eighty Christian families. This was due, not so much to the lack of support as to the lack of volunteers to the ministry. One method of helping forward the work in the home mission field was to assist the student funds, thus helping young and struggling ministers to get a good education. The work was now confronted with a deficit of $10,000, and at a time when the work was progressing with most wonderful results it was confronted with the call of retrenchment. This call, coming at the flood tide of prosperity in the foreign field, when whole villages were coming forward, was one that would surely spell disaster if not heeded.

In the past, said he, it had been their policy to hold up the missionaries' hands and they should so continue.
The treasurer, Mrs. George McFarlane, then read her report, which showed a very substantial sum contributed during the year. For home and foreign missions the received amounting to $2,800.00. Of this amount about $1,830 was for foreign mission work.

The dedicatory prayer was then offered by Mrs. H. C. Cruikshank, after which the report of the committee on the students' fund was given by Mrs. J. H. Thomson.
It showed that $100 had been contributed and would be distributed as scholarship bursaries to deserving ministerial students.
A very interesting paper was read by Mrs. A. B. Melrose on What Our Society is Doing for Home Missions in the Mar-time Provinces. Discussed by Rev. Dr. Lyle.
It was followed by discussion, in which a number took part, after which the meeting closed with the Doxology.
At the evening session, Rev. Gordon Dickie presided and conducted the devotional exercises. A solo was sung by Fred McKenzie, after which an address on Home Missions was given by Rev. H. R. Read.
He said that home mission work was to a great extent the work of the woman.
Her influence and emotional qualities attached to foreign mission work, but this did not make it any less important in her hand so big as Canada. There were great responsibilities and great opportunities and possibilities. Missionary work among the immigrants coming into the country should receive the earnest and prayerful attention of all. The need of ordained missionaries was pressing. The work was largely done by laymen, and the church should not only listen to the call of invitation, but also to that of investigation. The young men with their lives devoted to Christian service were needed at every turn.

A solo was sung by Miss Seaton. Mrs.
A. W. Thomson, returned missionary from Trinidad, then addressed the meeting and spoke particularly of the work among the girls of that country, which aimed not only at making them capable and useful women but also good and faithful Christians.
This work had started with small beginnings, but had met with wonderful and encouraging results. And it was a recognized fact, Mrs. Thomson said, that there could never be a self-supporting, self-respecting Christianity in Trinidad unless the women of that country were taken hold of and given good Christian training.

Rev. J. A. Serrano spoke of the importance of educating a native church in Trinidad. This could best be done by the education of the natives which was being accomplished by the missionaries.
He described the steps of training through which the native boys were sent before they could be sent out as native teachers.

The work in higher education in Magdalen College in Trinidad was spoken of also. It was necessary that the native preacher should receive the best education possible.
A duet was sung by Rev. L. A. McLean and Miss Milne, after which the presby-terial adjourned until this morning at 9.30.

Y.M.C.A. BOYS WORK

J. J. Davey, boys' work secretary of the west side Y. M. C. A., New York, met the local Y. M. C. A. boys' cabinet last night. He talked over what had been done in the association here and made suggestions along the line of organization and methods, from the standpoint of a wide experience in boys' work. The suggestions proved valuable and were much appreciated by the members of the cabinet.

The following are the members of the cabinet: J. N. Harvey, chairman of boys' work committee; Grant Smith, Willie Jones, Lawrence Hearnig, Alfred Smith, Charles Armstrong, P. Simms, Raymond Haley and Don Skinner.
This evening at 8 o'clock Mr. Davey will meet adult male workers among boys, including pastors, Sunday school superintendents and public school teachers, and any others interested in boys' work.
