HAS LETTER FROM
LADY ROBERTSWife of Lt. Col. Good Lent Field
Telescope For Use in War

Acknowledging the loan of a telescope valued at $100, Lady Roberts, has written a personal letter to Mrs. W. C. Good, wife of Lieutenant-Col. Good, now in France. Mrs. Good, who moved from Woodstock when her husband went to the front is a daughter of Rev. J. C. Berrie of this city. The letter is as follows:

Englemere,
Ascot,
Berks,
Oct. 8th, 1915.

Dear Mrs. Good:
I waited to answer your very kind letter of September 7, until the arrival of the telescope which you so kindly sent me for the use of the soldiers in the field. It has arrived and I know will be of the greatest value to some artillery officer. It is very good of you to have sent it to me for I know you must value it, but I can assure you that your gift is greatly appreciated for as you will see by the enclosed paper the demand for them is as great as ever.

I trust that perhaps you will get it back at the end of the war.
With best thanks, believe me,
Yours very truly,
AILEEN ROBERTS.

Mrs. Good,
59 Camarthen street,
St. John, N. B.

A circular was enclosed with the letter telling the need of glasses as follows:
Lady Roberts' Field-Glass Fund
National Service League
79 Victoria Street, Westminster.
The late Lord Roberts asked the nation for the loan of field glasses for the period of the war, for the troops. Lady Roberts has since written to the press in the same sense. In response more than 22,000 glasses have been lent.
The great conflict on which the country is engaged brings to light, as time goes on, unprecedented needs. No one could have anticipated the scale and urgency of the demand for good glasses for all ranks, and despite the very large number distributed, this demand grows daily more insistent. Those responsible for the scheme are in a position to say that every good glass given means the saving of gallant lives.

Lord Roberts desired the National Service League to undertake the administration of this scheme. Glasses should be sent (with a card enclosed in the case), addressed as above. They will be acknowledged by Lady Roberts, engraved with a registered number, lent to an officer, N. C. O., or man in need of them and returned where circumstances permit at the end of the war.

Types of glasses considered in order of preference:—
(1) Prismatic glasses, x5 by Zeiss, Goerz, Ross, Negretti & Zambra, Doll and other well-known makers.
(2) Prismatic glasses, x5 and higher powers by the above.
(3) Non-prismatic, by Dolland, x5.
(4) Good old-fashioned non-prismatic racing-glasses.

Good deer-stalking telescopes are most useful for batteries.

In answer to many enquiries, ordinary opera glasses are hardly suitable for military purposes.

Please address the secretary.

MORNING WAR REPORTS.

The Italians are continuing their offensive against the Austrians.

The Serbians are being forced slowly back in the northwest in spite of gallant efforts. In the south where the French have joined the Serbians the Bulgarians are being held.

The Marquis of Lansdowne announced yesterday that Great Britain is sending a strong force to the near east. He said they expect eventually to receive the support of Rumania and Greece, but are not depending on them.

The British transport Marquette has been sunk in the Aegean Sea, but with the loss of less than a hundred lives.

The Germans are making determined efforts to reach Riga, but are meeting with serious losses.

Throughout the eastern front many

MARITIME PROVINCE
PEOPLE IN CALGARY
ENJOY A RE-UNION

The maritime province people in addition to being good politicians and leaders in church and state affairs, are a jolly bunch, and when they get together generally have a good sociable time. The annual picnics and reunions held each year in Calgary and vicinity are always well attended, and the men and women who come from down by the sea shore that they can take the lead at a banquet or a tea fight as well as in other affairs.

On Tuesday evening those who are proud to claim the maritime provinces as their birth place gathered to the number of about 600 at the Hillhurst Presbyterian church, held a banquet, sang old time down east songs, renewed old friendships, talked patriotism and had a good time generally.

Owing to the war time the gathering was somewhat in the nature of a patriotic one. T. M. Tweedie, M. L. A., a real "Blue Nose" from Nova Scotia, and T. B. Kidner, who said that he was so fortunate as to spend the best years of his life in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, each made an appeal to the people from the old Loyalist provinces to support the Patriotic Fund. A quartette composed of Mr., Mrs. and Miss Dorothy Watson, a former Halifax family possessing more than ordinary musical talent, with Mr. Campbell, played the "Songs of the Allies" on violin, cornet and piano. Mrs. Florence Blake Mahoney and Miss Dorothy Watson each sang appropriate solos, while readings were given by Miss Robertson, a leading Calgary elocutionist, and by L. U. Fowler, who gave a description of a country basket social in Prince Edward Island.

Mrs. Mahoney and Miss Elodie Bourque played a number of down east selections which were taken up in chorus by the large audience present.

Addresses were delivered by Rev. Peter Walker and Rev. J. A. Huntley and also by C. W. Matheson, K. C., the retiring president, and by J. A. Irvine, the newly elected president of the Maritime Province Association.

The election of officers of the Maritime Province Association took place. John A. Irvine was elected president, and J. L. Neville secretary, while the provincial vice-presidents elected were: New Brunswick, S. B. Hillocks, M. L. A.; Nova Scotia, Ald. J. L. Jenkinson, K. C.; Prince Edward Island, L. U. Fowler.

The ladies of the Hillhurst Presbyterian church, who provided the banquet, came in for loud praise, and those who have been present at many such affairs pronounced it "the best yet."

It is worthy of remark that many of Alberta's leading citizens, including Bishop McNally, Canon Montgomery, I. B. Bennett, M. P., Messrs. Tweedie and Hillocks, M. L. A's, J. A. Irvine, Mayor Stewart, Hon. G. H. V. Byles, Hon. Charles Mitchell and others come from the Maritime Provinces and all have made good in Alberta.—The Sunday Standard, Calgary.

North End Conservatives

At their annual meeting last evening the North End Conservative Club decided to prepare an honor roll of the names of the members who have enlisted and who enlist in the future. Resolutions of sympathy were adopted and will be forwarded to the families of Messrs. McIlhargy and McJunkin of the 26th, who have been wounded. Addresses were given by Andrew Myles, John Thornton and the retiring officers. Robert Carson sang and Mr. Pheneey recited an original composition. Officers for the coming year were elected as follows:—Dr. C. M. Pratt, president; Walter Logan, first vice-president; S. R. Belyea, second vice-president; Robert Carson, third vice-president; W. L. Brown, secretary; Cochran; Duffin ward, William Stewart; Judson Belyea, treasurer. Executive committee, Lansdowne ward, R. J. Cochran; Duffin ward, William Stewart; Stanley ward, J. S. Porter.
