ACCOSTS LADY AND IS ARRESTED

Walter McLean of Halifax Fined $20 or 3 Months In Jail

Follows Married Woman Down Street—She meets Policeman and Arrest Follows

Walter McLean, 30, of Halifax, was fined $20 by Police Magistrate Henderson this morning on a charge of having accosted a lady in Charlotte street about 9.45 last night. He was arrested by Police Constable L. Durning.

McLean was sworn in his own behalf, and said that he had crossed from Carleton about 9 o'clock and had gone to the north side of King square to a beer-shop and then went down to Charlotte street on his way to the Salvation Army Home. He said he had been in Saint John about three years and had lived at the Home most of the time, his actual home being in Halifax.

MEETING TODAY. The regular meeting of the Civic Power Commission will be held this afternoon at 4:30.

TO OTTAWA TOMORROW. W. McL. Clarke, director of the commercial intelligence branch of the department of trade and commerce, Ottawa, who addressed a meeting of the Board of Trade yesterday, is spending today with relatives here and will leave for Ottawa tomorrow.

TOBOGGAN PARTY. The Friendly Bible Class of the Main street Baptist church Sunday school held an enjoyable toboggan party last evening at Lily Lake. Later they met at the home of Mrs. E. Robinson, Hawthorn avenue, where a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments served.

HAD GOOD TIME. A tobogganing party was held at East Saint John last evening and a very happy time was spent. They met at the home of Mrs. Shirley Brown and returned on the 10 o'clock train.

TOLD ABOUT LABRADOR. An interesting and instructive illustrated lecture on the Grenfell Medical Mission in Labrador was given by Miss Frances Stetson, in the auditorium of the Coburg street Christian church last evening under the auspices of one of the branches of the Women's Missionary Society of the church.

MARRIES IN IDAHO. Friends in Saint John were interested to hear of the marriage of Miss Anna Letitia Trentowsky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Trentowsky, 130 St. James street, to Thomas F. Holloway, a ranch owner of Ellier, Idaho, which took place on Tuesday afternoon, February 14, at the home of the bride, in the presence of friends and immediate relatives.

TO BE NURSE. Miss Jennie Eagles of 188 Main street was very pleasantly surprised last evening at the home of Miss Ida Nicholson, 15 Victoria street, where a large circle of friends gathered to bid farewell to Miss Eagles who is leaving Saint John on a suitable address, to study nursing in the Victoria Hospital, Fredericton, N. B.

PRESENTATION. A large number of friends of Miss Emma Trafton, daughter of Rev. P. J. Trafton, gathered at her home last evening to present to her a purse of money in conversation and singing some choice selections of sacred music, the gathering was called to order and Harold Nicholson read a suitable address, after which he presented to Miss Trafton, on behalf of her friends, a beautiful silk umbrella and a purse of money.

FLORAL TRIBUTES. From the list of floral tributes sent to the funeral of Beverly H. Warren, of 34 St. Paul street, the following names were inadvertently omitted: Mrs. J. Christie Warren, wreath; W. Hunt and family, spray; Miss Sargeant, spray.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said the Times-Star reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "what caused that lump over your left eye?" "Stung by a hornet," replied Hiram. "Hornets—at this time of year?" gasped the reporter. "Yes, sir," said Hiram—"he's a great big nest in the cow-stable at tetcher's with a fork-handle yesterday an' out come a big fellow an' hit me over the eye."

RIGHT TO WORK

The Board of Trade this morning were preparing letters which are to be sent out to the manufacturers and exporters of produce in the province with a view to their attending a meeting here on March 24 to complete organization of a New Brunswick Export Club.

C. H. MINTYRE DIES IN BOSTON

Lawyer, Native of Kings Co., Prominent in Canadian Club

Telegram Also Brings Word of Death of H. W. Roberts in Roxbury

Relatives here today received the sad news of the death of Charles H. McIntyre, prominent lawyer, of Boston, after an illness of some months duration, in the 57th year of his age. Mr. McIntyre, who was born at Springfield, Kings county, will be remembered by many in this city. While a resident of Boston he never forgot his native land, and was one of the most active workers in the Boston Canadian Club. He frequently visited the home land. He is survived by his wife and two sons, of Boston; two brothers, Dr. J. A. McIntyre, Fredericton Junction, and George, at the family home, Springfield. Capt. A. A. McIntyre, of this city, is a cousin. Interment is to be made at Forest Hills cemetery, Boston.

H. W. ROBERTS. Word was received this morning by H. D. McFarlane, 83 Victoria street, of the death yesterday morning, in Roxbury, Mass., of his father-in-law, Herbert W. Roberts, formerly of Clarendon Station, N. B., after an illness of about a month. Mr. Roberts, who was 66 years of age, had been living in Roxbury for the last five years. He is survived by four sons, Herbert W., of Somerville, Mass., Walter, of Everett, Mass., John, of Roxbury, and Charles, of Clarendon Station, N. B., and five daughters, Mrs. May Kirkpatrick, Dorchester, Mass.; Mrs. Berte Lovett and Mrs. Beaulieu Hill, Roxbury; Mrs. Annie Whitehouse, Randolph, Me., and Mrs. H. D. McFarlane, Saint John, and by several brothers and sisters.

WINTER IS WINNER

Debate Held By C. G. I. T. of St. George's Church, West Saint John

The C. G. I. T. of St. George's church, West Saint John, held an interesting debate last five years ago, last evening, with a large number present. The subject was: "Which is more popular, Winter or Summer?" The decision was given in favor of winter, owing to the point being brought out that winter sport had much to advertise Saint John. Members of the Rainbow, Violet, Red Feather and Bluebird groups took part in the debate. Winter was captained by Miss Alice Lee and Summer by Miss Catherine Mitchell. The judges were Mrs. John Easton, Mrs. M. McBeay, Miss Alice Thompson, Miss Helen Ogier, Miss Nellie McIntyre and Miss Grace Long.

Mrs. J. F. Sullivan Dies This Morning

At an early hour this morning at her residence, 183 Main street, Mrs. Theresa M. Sullivan, wife of John F. Sullivan, passed away. She was well known and highly respected resident of the North End and a former resident of Fredericton. Mrs. Sullivan had been ill since last fall. She is survived by her husband, four daughters, Madeline, of the office staff of the Telegraph-Journal and Times-Star; Bernadetta, of the teaching staff of St. Peter's school; Marion and Katherine at home; her mother, Mrs. Katherine O'Brien, Fairville, and one sister, Mrs. Charles McCormack, of Fairville. They will have deep sympathy in their great loss.

CANADIAN GENERAL SECRETARY

Rev. Dr. R. A. Hiltz, general secretary of religious education for the Church of England in Canada, arrived in the city today and tonight will speak in the Church of England Institute auditorium. Dr. Hiltz is en route to King's College, Halifax to deliver a course of special lectures. He is a native of Nova Scotia. Today the visiting clergyman is the guest of Ven. Archbishop Crowfoot at the rectory, Wall street.

EVENING ENJOYED

The choir of Fairville United church held a tobogganing party on Thursday evening on Manawagonish hill and were afterwards entertained at the home of the choir leader, H. Marshall Stout and Mrs. Stout. In serving refreshments the hostess was assisted by Mrs. J. J. Finkerton and Mrs. Arthur Long. Those present were Rev. J. J. and Mrs. Finkerton, Mrs. Arthur Long, Miss Edna Shaw, Miss Lottie Kelly, Miss Hazel Kelly, Miss Lucy Black, Miss Marion Black, Miss Hazel Linton, Miss Virginia McColgan, Miss Audrey McColgan, Miss Gladys Scott, Miss Saldie Coogie, Miss Ruth Linton, Leon Small, Frank VanWart, Frederick Duff and J.
