THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., FRIDAY, JULY 30, 1920

MORNING NEWS
OVER THE WIRES

The tug Diamond of Pictou, N. S., sprung a leak and sank off Fire Islands yesterday. The crew were rescued. The twentieth annual convention of the Union of Canadian Municipalities closed at Quebec yesterday. The selection of Quebec yesterday. The selection of Quebec yesterday.

tion of the place for next year's convention was left to the executive.

A statement of claim was filed at Fredericton yesterday and the sum of $20,000 damages named in a case of W. H. Knox against the St. John executive of the N. B. Temperance Alliance. D. Mullin, K. C., is acting for the plaintiff and H. A. Powell, K. C., for the defendant.

Thousands of Belgian soldiers, who do not think that the government is treating its defenders rightly, broke into the chamber of deputies in Brussels and demanded that a sum of money be paid each soldier. The tumult was finally quieted.

The total catch of sea fish by Canadian vessels this year is below that of last year, yet the value of this year's catch is greater. The weather has been fine for fishing and the boats have been out almost continuously.

Optional retirement of civil servants at sixty and compulsory retirement at sixty-five is the kernel of a new superannuation scheme which is being received with favor at Ottawa. The draft of the idea provides for a pension of not more than one-fifth of the average of the last three years' salary for every year's service not exceeding thirty-five years.

Ottawa, July 30.—Edward Hucklebone died last week at the residence of his son, Robert, near Rankin, Renfrew county, at the age of one hundred and nine years.
It is claimed by his children that he was the oldest man in Canada and had lived under six British Sovereigns, from George III. to George V.
He was born on the banks of the Ottawa River, not far from this city, and is survived by eight sons, one daughter, fifty-two grandchildren and thirty-six great-grandchildren.
He was of Irish descent, and it is said he enjoyed remarkably good health throughout his long life. He was conversing with members of his family a few minutes before his death. His wife died about twenty-five years ago.
