"The Mormons" do not have horns nor cloven hoofs. They are flesh and blood. They look, dress and act like other persons. There is a practical religion which they carry into their daily lives. They have infinite faith in it. There is no reason why they should be singled out for curious consideration. Some of them are persons of culture, refinement, and beautiful character. It is a pleasure and a privilege to number them among one's friends.—John R. Wildman, in Haskin and Sells' Bulletin of August 15, 1920.

ASKS DAMAGES FOR A BREACH OF MARRIAGE PROMISE

How Miss Thurmin of Montreal Makes Up the Sum of $5,000.

Montreal, Oct. 16.—Miss Justice Sur-veyon, after hearing evidence yesterday in an action taken by Ada Thurmin, spinster, against James Patterson, widower, for alleged breach of promise of marriage, in the sum of $5,000 damages, reserved judgment. Miss Thurmin detalled the damages as follows: Damage to her honor, $2,500; to her sensibility, $500; to her reputation, $2,000.

"Strangler" Wins.

Ottawa, Oct. 16.—"Strangler" Ed. Lewis defeated Charlie Harrison, a Scandinavian heavyweight, in an exhibition wrestling match here last night. Lewis took the first fall in seventeen minutes, and the second in seven minutes.

NEW PROGRAMME

MAKES A HIT

Vaudeville Acts at the Opera

House Enjoyed by Large

Audiences—Lots of Comedy, Sensational Dancing and a Great Equilibrist Offering.

Lovers of vaudeville attended Opera House performance last evening in large numbers. The new bill had something to interest all and as a result the applause was frequent and prolonged. There were lots of comedy, sensational dancing, good singing instrumental selections and other features, which, combined with an interesting episode of "The Third Eye," a popular motion picture, made up a thoroughly enjoyable programme.

Clay and Robinson, in comedy singing and instrumental selections, made a favorable impression. Their songs were catchy and their musical numbers very pretty. The male member has a pleasing tenor voice.

Eddie and Margaret Kelly entertained with comedy songs and breezy chatter and won considerable applause. Their repartee was amusing and evoked hearty laughter.

Krayona and Company presented a highly entertaining electrical novelty with animated pictures. The act was well staged and thoroughly enjoyed. The battleship scene was a feature.

The Roys made a big hit in their blackface comedy de luxe. They are exceptionally clever eccentric dancers and their wit and humor made an additional feature greatly enjoyed. They received rounds of applause.

"Up side down" Stanley, who is termed the "Topsy-Turvy" equilibrist, well
