

"to give the full Christian and surnames of members, together with any academic or other title, if any, as well as residence, with Post-office address and street number; such particulars, if not now supplied, to be obtained by correspondence or otherwise."

Members will confer a favor by supplying the Secretary with the required information, where the foregoing list is defective.