

REPORT.

ANOTHER year has passed down the stream of time, and the Committee of the Nova Scotia Auxiliary, in the good Providence of God, having met to celebrate its Sixty-eighth Anniversary, beg to submit its Annual Report.

Few incidents have occurred to break the monotony of the usual work of this institution, though the year just closed has been an eventful one in Bible history, as it will be ever remembered as the year on which the Revised version of the English edition of the New Testament was given to the world. This event speaks volumes for the power of the printing press, the enterprise of the publishers, and the earnest desire of all to possess a copy of the Revised Edition of the New Testament. And this desire was manifested by the careless, as well as the earnest. With all those movements the Committee of the Parent Society have evinced the deepest concern, regard having been had to the regulation which provides that "only the copies in the languages of the United Kingdom be circulated by the Society shall be the authorized version." The desirableness of so modifying this rule, so as to admit of the new version being circulated concurrently with the old, will be
