It was also moved and agreed, that the report of the financial state of the fund be received, approved, and entered on the minutes.

It was also enjoined, that ministers do see that collections to this fund be duly made.

Widows' Fund Committee were then re-appointed, with instructions to have the monies lodged in name of Synod's Secretary, and Treasurer, in Saving's Bank.

Mr. Alves then gave a report of distribution of monies from the Free Church of Scotland, when it was moved and agreed that the report be received and adopted, subject to reservation in the case of Mr. Salmon. The committee were re-appointed. F. C. monies, distribution of.

It was also agreed, that for the present year Mr. Glass receive a share of any grant that may be obtained from the Free Church.

The Convener of the Home Mission committee read the report for the past year, including reports from Messrs. Brown and Dunlop, viz.:

Home Mission Committee beg leave to report—That H. M. report.

during the past year Missionary operations have been carried on through the students who have acted as Catechists, by Rev. Mr. Brown, and by Rev. John I. Dunlop. There is at the present only one Catechist who came to the Province in April last, at the instance of the York Presbytery, but whose expenses are chargeable on the H. M. Fund. As part of this report we beg to submit reports from the Rev. Messrs. Brown and Dunlop, from which the nature of part of the missionary operations carried on by our Synod, may be better understood.

To the Convener of the H. M. Committee.

"In presenting a brief report of our labors during the past year to your committee, we at once recognize the goodness of God in restoring our health, and enabling us to fulfil our duties to those stations to which we were
