PATRICK. At Midland, Kings Co., Feb. 16, of acute rheumatism, W. Lawson, eldest son of John Pendergrass, aged 20 years. BIGLOW. At Centreville, Cumberland Co., N. S., January 7th, Mrs. Gideon Bigelow, aged 68 years. She was a consistent member of the Baptist Church at Pugnash till death. She died in the triumph of faith. STEWART. At Pugnash River, N. S., February 21st, Mr. Stephen Stewart, aged 84 years. By carefully studying the Word of God he, in early life found his way out of the Church of Rome, and united with the Baptist Church. With great earnestness he ever contended for the faith once delivered to the saints, till called home to rest. WHIDDEN. At Cooperstown, Dakota, March 6th, after a short illness of two weeks, Sadie Angell, loving wife of W. L. Whidden, aged 31 years, leaving a sorrowing husband and three little children to mourn the loss of a fond wife and affectionate mother, besides a host of friends in the East and her late home, who cannot soon forget her Christian character, her words of cheer and labors of love. Rev. G. W. Huntley, General Missionary for North Dakota, preached the funeral sermon on Saturday afternoon from Isaiah 54: 9, 10, to the largest congregation ever assembled in the Victor Memorial Baptist Church—that church she labored so hard for and took such delight in and whose existence is in great part due to her untiring efforts. After the services scores of sorrowing friends looked upon her face (beautiful still in death) for the last time until she greets them on the farther shore, when from the valley and plain countless throngs shall meet again. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth; yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors, and their works do follow them." POWER. At his home, Feb. 26, after a very brief but distressing illness, George, son of Mr. Gideon Power, Welsford, Kings Co., N. S. George was 22 years of age and one of our finest young men. He was converted and joined the Cambridge church about five years ago, since then he has been a conscientious young Christian. He was almost invariably present at the weekly prayer meetings. He loved his religion. We looked forward to him as one who would probably be one of the pillars of the church before many years. The day of his death he prayed several beautiful prayers. They were not prompted by fear, but by that confident trust which the true Christian has in the ability of the Saviour in the darkest danger. The sympathy of the whole neighborhood is with his parents and brothers and sisters in their great sorrow. He will be greatly missed in his home and in the church. Funeral took place March 1st. Sermon was preached by the pastor. He was buried at the Old Valley burying ground. FOWNES. It has pleased God to call suddenly from this world to the better land our dear sister, Henrietta H. Fownes, of Dorchester, Mass. She will be greatly missed by a large circle of acquaintances in whose society she was always a welcome guest. Left behind are father, mother and many dear relatives; also a young and dearly loved husband and precious babe but two weeks old to mourn their sad loss. Our sister was formerly a resident of St. John, N. B., and a consistent member of Brussels Street Baptist Church. Her life was one beautiful to remember, her loving, modest, self-sacrificing manner winning for her many warm friends. Very early in life did the summons come. "Child thy Father calls thee home!" but she was calm, patient and resigned to the Divine Will, and bidding an affectionate good-bye to the weeping ones, she gently fell asleep in Jesus. SHELLEY. At St. George, February 22nd, Mrs. Edward Shelley, aged 91 years. Our deceased sister was baptized into the St. George Baptist Church by the Rev. Duncan Dunbar, in which church she was an active member until death. The last words she said to me were: "Do you think there will be a reformation in St. George before I die?" A large concourse of relatives and friends met at the home of the deceased, February 24th, at 10 a. m., and from thence to the Baptist Chapel, where a sermon was preached by the writer from Psalm 17: 15, and with the hope of a glorious resurrection.
