Society starts out once again with all its usual gaiety in the New Year. Right merrily was 1911 welcomed. New Year's dinners and reunions were held in a great many private residences. Invitations are still crowding in and next week, so far, looks like a record breaker. The revival of fancy skating is proving to be successful. After this week members of the Monday Evening Club will meet once a week to become experts in the art. Yesterday being the Feast of Epiphany it was observed by the great many of the churches. The majority of students have returned to college, the few that are left will return next week. The public and the familiar coaters on Monday will not be as large until later in the day. On Monday evening Edward Terry and his excellent stock company will open a week's engagement at the Opera House. "Sweet Lavender" is the bill for the opening night. The bill for the week is full of interest and it is to be hoped St. John will not be outdone by the sister city. The many friends of Mr. Philippe Robinson will be sorry to learn of his transfer to Port Elgin. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson will leave shortly for their new post. Mr. Maurice Fisher returned to the Royal Military College, Kingston, on Wednesday. Mr. Hazen Barnaby returned to Montreal this week to resume his studies at McGill. Mr. W. B. Chandler of Moncton was in the city this week. Mr. Wm. Pugsley was in Montreal this week. The holiday assembly dance given by the St. John Tennis Club last Friday evening in Keith's Assembly rooms, was in every respect a delightful affair. The dance was given to remove a deficit resulting from the various damages done last year and it was a huge success financially, as well as socially. There were about two hundred guests present. The greatest credit reflects on the committee for the tastefully decorated rooms. The committee consisted of Misses Portia MacKenzie, Minnie Girvan, Vivian Barnes, Jean Trueman, Mrs. H. C. Schofield and Miss Katie Hazen, secretary. On the walls of the main room were displayed tennis racquets, tennis terms, a tennis net, etc. The most interesting feature of the evening was a "moon light" dance during which all the lights were turned off and the only illumination was from an electric lamp. The guests were in black sequin over black satin, and Mrs. Percy Thomson in a white lace gown. The chaperones were Mrs. J. Douglas Skeggs, Mrs. Edward Foster, Mrs. Walter Harrison, Mrs. L. R. Harrison, Mrs. Frank Fairweather, Mrs. Kaye, Mrs. Fred Schofield, Mrs. J. C. Thompson, Mrs. M. B. Murray, Mrs. Murray Kaye, Gordiner Road. The sisters are Mrs. Herbert Burgess, of Chestnut Hill; Mrs. John Wing Prentiss, and Mr. Rutherford M. Sheridan of New York, and Miss Rawson and Miss Mary Murray Kaye. Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Murray, of St. John, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hansticker, Colker Street, Montreal. The engagement is announced of Mr. William Pugsley, son of Hon. Wm. Pugsley to Miss Marion Ross, daughter of Dr. George Ross, of Montreal. Miss Ross was a recent guest of Mrs. Pugsley, Chipman Hill. The Quebec Telegraph announces the engagement of Miss Irma B. Thibault, second daughter of Madame Balot Thibault, of Quebec and Mr. Fred H. Gibson, of Marysville. Mr. Guy Bostwick accompanied by his wife and daughter, arrived from New York this week to visit his father, Mr. C. M. Bostwick.
