THIS DATE IN RING ANNALS

1911—Johnny Conley defeated Frankie Conley in twenty rounds at New Orleans. This defeat put a stop to Conley's climb toward the bantam weight championship. The Italian, whose real name is Francesco, was born in Kenosha, Wis., in 1885, and entered the ring at the age of sixteen. He fought a draw with Ad Wolgast in 1907, and again at Racine in 1908. In 1910 he knocked out Monte Attell, twice defeated Joe Mandot, and won fifteen rounds to a draw with Abe Attell. These performances made Conley look like a coming champion, and he challenged Conley, but was defeated, although he stayed the limit. Later in 1911 he fought a twenty-round draw with Joe Jivers, and in 1912, Conley gave him another chance. This time the battle was staged in Los Angeles, and, as the first bout, it ended in a decision for Conley. After that Conley lost heart, and he was whipped by Jack White, Harry Thomas, Johnny Dundee, and others, and put out of the championship running.

1903—Eddie Hanlon and Young Corbett fought twenty-round draw at San Francisco.

1903—Abe Attell won on foul from Dave Johnson at San Francisco.

1909—Ad Wolgast knocked out Walter Little in fourth round at Los Angeles.

O'DAY STILL A MANAGER

Tampa, Fla., Feb. 25.—Manager O'Day of the Chicago Nationals has received a telegram from Chicago which notifies him that he will be retained as manager, despite the sale of the Chicago club.

The telegram was signed by Charles H. Thomas, secretary and treasurer of the club, who stated that it had been provided that the contract signed by O'Day when Murphy was president had been assumed by Charles P. Taft, and that Mr. Taft instructed Thomas to notify the manager that he was to go on as if nothing had happened.

CANADIENS VANQUISHED.

Ottawa, Feb. 25.—After the most sensational game of the local hockey season Ottawa vanquished the Canadiens, six to five, at the Arena tonight after fifteen seconds overtime. This dropped the Canadiens out of the race for the Stanley cup and the championship, which goes to the Toronto.

TORONTO TRIMMED ONTARIOS.

Toronto, Feb. 25.—Toronto tonight defeated Ontario, for the fourth time this season, six to one. The coming N. H. A. champions led all the way, though Ontario held them closely in the first and second periods.

SUSSEX
WON FROM SACKVILLE

Sackville, Feb. 25.—In a closely contested hockey game marked by a good deal of clever play, the visitors from Sussex defeated the local team tonight by a score of 4 to 3.

In the first period the Sussex boys rushed things from the start and scored three times, while the local players only made on goal.

In the second period Sackville had the best of the game, outplaying the visitors on every point, and at the close the score was 3 to 2.

In the last period the local boys kept the puck in the visitors territory most of the time, but were unable to shoot to advantage. At the close of the game the score stood 4 to 3 in favor of Sussex.

Richardson and Gray were the stars for the Sackvilles, and Dawson and John LeClair made the best showing for the Sussex.

Both teams played clean hockey, and there were only two penalties, these being marked up against McDonald, of the Sackvilles and Whittier of the Sussex.

The lineup follows:

Sussex	Sackville
Chase . . . . . Point.	McDonald . . . . . Cover Point.
Rainnie . . . . . Dawson	Knapp . . . . . Hay
Richardson . . . . . Joe LeClair	McDonald . . . . . Left Wing.
Gray . . . . . Whittier	Scott . . . . . McKinnon
"Billy" Godfrey refereed the game to the satisfaction of everybody.

Every Dog has his Day and this is Hound's Day.

Every dog has his day, according to the proverb, and the American foxhound is to have long delayed recognition today. This will be Hound's Day at the Westminster Kennel Club's show in Grand Central Palace, New York.

While the canine exhibition of the Westminster club has become the largest in the world in the number of animals benched, surpassing the Crystal Palace show in London, no special attention has been paid in the past to foxhounds. Now they are to have a day all their own, when judging of individual hounds and packs will take place, and when all members of hunt clubs represented will be seen in gay hunting dress.

Foxhunting, now as for many centuries one of the most popular sports of English society, was early introduced into America, but it has never gained here anything like its British vogue. There are only about half a hundred packs of foxhounds registered over here, as compared with more than a thousand in Great Britain.

The pursuit of roynard as a sport, has always been surrounded by an atmosphere of exclusiveness that does not appeal to the democratic Americans. Whatever one may think of foxhunting as a sport, however, it must be admitted that the spectacle afforded by a hunt is one long to be remembered by a mere plebeian who has been so fortunate as to get a place of vantage on the sidelines.

The agnecess with which the keen-scented and swift-footed hounds give chase to their quarry, matching speed and determination against the cunning of the fox, affords an illustration of what breeding can do for a dog. For more than two centuries the English foxhound has been bred and trained with the one purpose in view, and there is no dog under such perfect control or that does its work so well. The foxhounds, barriers and beagles at the New York show have been divided into four classes for each sex, and the conditions are modelled on those of the ancient hound show at Peterborough, England. Riding to hounds is not a democratic sport. Like polo, it is to be enjoyed only by the rich. The spectacle of a pack of trained hounds and many mounted men and women in brilliant uniforms chasing one small animal is inspiring, in a way, but in the minds of many it arouses emotions of sympathy for the pursued. Yet you have to hand it to the foxhound as an animal that knows its business. It can accomplish as much for the human breed as it has for the foxhound, the "superman" is in sight.

EASTERN
NAMED

Bridgeport, Conn., Feb. 25.—President James H. O'Rourke of the Eastern Baseball Association has announced his staff of umpires for the coming season. The men selected are George Barnett, Louisville, Ky.; Marty J. Phalen, Troy; P. Christman, Syracuse, N. Y.; and M. J. McLaughlin, Waycross, Ga. Barnett and McLaughlin are each more than six feet tall. Barnett is a lawyer. Phalen played first base on the Bridgeport team in 1907 and 1908.

As a substitute for hiking the San Francisco baseball team will take up soccer football when the spring training season opens at Boyes Springs. Manager Del Howard says the sport will prove ideal exercise for his players.

"The men consider hiking a hardship," he said. "It is trying on a ball player's nerves to run or walk just for the sake of running or walking. Playing soccer football, however, will give the Seals plenty of leg work and will develop their wind without causing them any worry. In fact, the sport of the game will keep their minds off the fact that they are working."

Earl opposed by Belyea made a score of 18 to 9; Harold Crowell skip, opposed by Driscoll skip, 18 to 12, and J. W. Grant skip, opposed by Coster, skip, 22 to 8.

ST. THOMAS
ST. JOSEPH'S

St. Thomas College Hockey club of Chatham played a return match with St. Joseph College on Monday, 23rd inst., on the latter's ice, the score being 7 to 6 in favor of St. Thomas after five minutes over time.

The St. Joseph opened things with a dash for the St. Thomas nets and scored almost at once. This method was repeated four times in ten minutes, and St. Thomas began to see visions of a double score against them. But the visions faded when they had notched three goals before the end of the period. It was a sea-saw to the end with St. Thomas lasting better than the home team. It was 6 to 6 at the end of the third period, and in five minutes over time St. Thomas notched the seventh and walked off with the honors.

The St. Thomas' players are enthusiastic over their reception, and are looking forward to another clash with St. Joseph's.

St. Rev. Louis O'Leary has donated a silver cup for competition in the Interclass Hockey League at St. Thomas College. The cup is of beautiful design and came from Roger Bros., Toronto.
