THE HORSE THAT WINS THE RACE

(The following set of jangling rhymes was written by Mr. R. L. Fillmore, of Port Elgin, N. B., one of the contestants in The Standard's big Automobile and Movie Star Contest. The main idea running through the rhymes, re. the advantages of an early start struck us as most appropriate for those who intend competing for the Ford Touring Car.)

"If you ever go to races I think that you'll agree in the following philosophy which oft occurred to me: Some horses start off slowly and others make the pace, but the first horse at the wire is the horse that wins the race.

It doesn't always matter which jockey has your mount, when they rally down the homestretch one thing alone will count. Luck often passes merit and for better or for worse, the rear horse gets his lashing and the front horse takes the purse.

When dealing cards in poker you are liable to find that two pair seldom rank as high as three cards of a kind; the king card is a high card, but it doesn't beat the ace; and the first horse at the wire is the one that wins the race.

Just look the records over and you'll say with me, I guess, that really for succeeding, there's nothing like success; the world will surely judge you by the things that you have done; you will only get the pity if your battle's nearly won.

Endeavor may be noble, but the world don't care a pin, for an ocean of endeavors unless they chance to win. Finish what you've undertaken if you want to make a name; success has filled the niches in the temple hall of fame.

The most successful doctor is the one that most is paid; the merchant that most prospers is the one that gets the trade; the most successful lawyer is the one that wins his case; and the first horse at the wire is the one that wins the race.

I often think it's pretty hard that things should be just so, but you have to buy your ticket if you want to see the show. It's the front of the procession where you always see the band, and you'll never get the orders if you hang around the stand.

So get your tablets ready and jot these maxims down: It's the workers does the hustling and they're the ones who wear the crown; the man who gets the fox's brush is the fore-most in the chase.

AND THE HORSE THAT RUNS THE FASTEST IS THE ONE THAT WINS THE RACE.
