The Egg Contest.

The Globe's biggest egg was from "A Nephew hen," and measured "7x6, good measure." The Frederickton Express, however, says—

It is no use for Queen's to enter the lists with York in the matter of eggs. Mr. Alex. McFarlane of Douglas brought into our office on Friday two eggs, both of them larger than the Nephew's egg. The smallest measured 7x6. They were laid by a common hen, "with out any Shanghai about her," as Mr. McFarlane naively remarked.

City Police Court.

Brian McNamee has a bad habit of beating his wife. She disturbs his rest when he is drunk, and last night he beat her so that she resembled a Dolly Varden this morning and had a print and doctor to see her. He was remanded.

Phoebe Byles, 39, N. B., sitting drunk on Brussels street, fined $6 or 2 months Penitentiary.

Mary Kelly, 32, Ireland, drunk, was let go on condition that she left for Quebec.

A DARK AFFAIR.

The irrepressible Sandy O'Neill appeared on the boards of the Police Office this morning. He was on his way to the office to enter a complaint against Ella Roebuck, a female of copper colored hue, when a policeman met him with a warrant at her residence. She got ahead of Sandy this time. The cause of the disturbance was that Sandy happened to be passing by the door of a man named Rogers on Duke street, yesterday, and seeing a very dark child on the door step he patted it on the head, remarking at the same time that it was pure grit, no half and half about it. Ella did not like his allusions to the child and she addressed some remarks of an irritating and not over polite nature to him, accompanying the remarks with violent gestures and a slap on the face. Sandy dodged the slap, and didn't mind the abuse, "being a female, your honor, you know I wouldn't touch her." Finally the lovely Ella was handed away by her mother with out doing any further damage to the outraged Sandy. The Magistrate told them both to leave, as Sandy's character for truthfulness stood him good service this time.

ALLEGED INSULT TO THE UNITED STATES FLAG.

Minister Mitchell's Fleet Guilty of "an Outrage."

THE NEW YORK "HERALD'S" VERSION OF THE DIFFICULTY.

WASHINGTON, June 23, 1872.

The State Department has received despatches from George H. Holt, our Consul at Cape Basin, Canada, informing our Government that on the 18th inst. the American schooner James Bliss was seized by the Dominion cutter Stella Marie off Anticosti island, in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, for alleged violation of the Dominion laws in regard to inshore fishing. The schooner James Bliss was taken to Gaspé, where she arrived on Thursday last. As she entered the port it was observed that the Dominion flag was flying from the peak of the mainmast.

but there was no nation on the face of the earth that could insult the flag of its country without making proper explanation, and that he should immediately report the full particulars to his government. Our Consul General, William A. Dart, at Montreal, and F. L. G. Strave, at Quebec, were at once informed of the matter, and await further instructions. It is understood that

THE INSULT WAS PREMEDITATED, and that it is sustained by the highest Dominion authority. Secretary Fish, when his attention was called to it, remarked— "It amounts to nothing. Some hair-brained Dominion official thinks he can make trouble by insulting our flag. We have become accustomed to such insolence."

The State Department is advised that the colonial fishermen are getting impatient to have the treaty put into operation, as it will give them free markets for their fish in the United States, and they are well pleased when very indignity is offered to the United States fishing vessels, thinking it is will hasten negotiations.
