A young led named Henry Hawk, who has been angaged for some time as hostler at the Outario Hotel, Galt, was arrested last week for petty pilfering. He was found guilty of having taken away various small articles from several stores in town, and by way of punishment, he has been sent to the Reformance. tory Prison for three years.

THE QUEEN AS A CHURCHGOER.— Dr. Cumming, in a sermon which he preached at the Scotch National Church, Convent Garden, on a Sunday night, lately related an instance of the interest manifested by the Queen in the sermons which are preached before Her Majesty. Some time since he delivered a discourse before the Queen upon the cognisance of the departed dead of what transpires in the world. The sermon being over, Her Majesty came up and thanked him for discourse remarking that from she had received great consolation, and concluded by reminding him of a text from which he had preached before her some years previously.

The St. Catharines Times says:— The determination of the present Reform nstruction of certain sections of the Pacific Railway in Manitoba and the great North-western country is creating considerable agitation amongst young men and others in this neighbourhood, of the Markeuzic Administration there is an immediate prospect of lively and prosperous times in the North-west.

We have just received some particulars which have not yet got into the press, of the assassination of a very fine young man named Macpherson, a conductor on the Union Pacific Railroad, and whose parents reside about seven miles from Lancaster, Ont. Some years ago he left Glengarry, made his way West, and by dilligent application managed to make considerable money. Some weeks ago while in charge of a special train, upon which passengers were prohibited, a couple of scoundrels jumped on, and attempted to resist Macpherson's orders to get off. Some hard words ensued, and the fellows got off. Nothing more was thought of it at the time. On the 20th of last month, about four weeks after the above occurrence, Macpherson was sitting in his room in his boarding house, —if we mistake not, in Omaha—when a man entered, and asking him if he was the conductor who on a certain date, put two men off a train, &c., Macpherson revised 45 Year. I simply did not contain the said meeting, and those intending to take out an Inn or a Shop License are required to make their application.

A FEARFUL POSITION.

One night this winter young Mulien of this town, who feared the lady he loved was entertaining another admirer determined to climb a tree in the yard from which he could see into the sitting room in the second story, where the young woman was supposed to be. Just as he got himself fixed in a comfortable position commanding the window some one upon the inside pulled the curtain down. Then Mullen made up his mind to descend. It was very dark, but just down. Then Mullen made up his mind to descend. It was very dark, but just as he began to slide down Mullen heard a dog barking furiously heneath, and looking down he saw a huge animal capering about apparently very eager to nip Mullen's legs. Then Mullen suddenly elimbed up the tree again, and endeavored to drive the dog off but the more it danced around and barked. Then Mullen came down as low as he dared, and tried to coax the animal, but this only made him hop about and how more furiously than ever. So it became apparent that Mullen would have to spend the night in the tree. He fixed himself as comfortable as he could in a crotch of the limbs, and kicked his legs and moved his arms to keep himself from freezing to death. Several times when he thought the dog was asleep he attempted to descend but each time the brate awoke and began to caper about. By the time daylight arrived Mullen was so beniffined with cold he could hardly use his hands; but as the sky constinuing one quarter of an acre on St. in bad. He has some of the rhouns-ism bad. He has some of the rhouns-ism which he got on that night in his cones yet.—Guilph Heratd, warmand Chileton Plate, Pabl 5th, 1874. 19-6
