Obituary.

A gloomy shadow was cast over our community at the New Year when a message was flashed from Montreal to say that D. W. McKellar was called to his eternal home. While it was known that he was in ill health, the last word received of his condition was of the most hopeful character, and his friends had earnestly hoped for his speedy recovery. At 11 o'clock on the morning of the 30th of December he passed to his rest in Alexandra Hospital, Montreal.

D. W. was the only son of the late A. A. McKellar and Jessie I. Eddie, and a nephew of John W. Eddie, of Glencoe, David J. and Hugh Eddie and Mrs. Nelson Mawhinney, of Ekfrid township. He was born in the township of Metcalfe 21 years ago last September. On the death of his father, about seven years ago, he came with his mother to reside in Glencoe, where he attended the high school and matriculated in 1913.

During his high school course he spent two years as assistant in the Glencoe post office where his genial manner and kind thoughtfulness made him popular with everyone. After matriculating D. W. went to McGill University, Montreal, where he entered upon his course preparatory to entering the ministry. He attended college two years, spending his vacation in home mission work in Alberta, doing most acceptably. On his return to Montreal last fall he responded to the call of king and country, a matter he had been seriously considering during the service year, and enlisted in the 73rd Battalion of the Royal Highlanders.

He contracted a cold about two months ago which developed into cerebral spinal meningitis to which he succumbed at the date recorded above. He was honored with a military funeral. After the service conducted in the chapel at Wray's by Rev. Dr. Johnston, pastor of the American Presbyterian church of which deceased was a member, assisted by Acting Principal D. J. Fraser, of the Presbyterian College, and Rev. W. Taylor, the members of his company marched in procession to the Grand Trunk station. All the students of the college who had not returned home were present and testified to the popularity of the noble young lad who was so early summoned from the battlefield of this life to the service above.

His remains were brought to Glencoe where an impressive service was held in the Presbyterian church, Mr. Weir paying a fitting tribute to the memory and genuine worth of this late soldier lad. The choir sang, "No Shadow Yonder," David McGuire taking the solo.

Interment was made in Kilmartin cemetery, Revs. Dr. Smith and McKay of Alvinston taking part.

Tom Mahon, seven-year-old son of Mrs. Thomas Mahon, of Bothwell, has just finished his first pair of socks for the soldiers. Mrs. Laughton, of the same town, has just completed her fortieth pair.
