ITALIANS LAUNCH OFFENSIVE AGAINST TEUTON MOUNTAIN POSITIONS

On the Lower Piave Enemy Boats Were Destroyed by the Artillery—Situation on Northern Section Unchanged.

A despatch from London says: Along the entire Italian front the batteries of the contending armies are maintaining a violent bombardment. The German War Office reports that Italian attacks against the Austro-German mountain positions on the west bank of the Brenta and on Monte Tomba failed.

"Heavy artillery fighting is in progress all along the front, but no further infantry actions occurred," the Italian report states. "On the lower Piave River Italian batteries directed a destructive fire at enemy boats."

A despatch from Headquarters of the Italian Army says: Details have been officially received of one of the most sanguinary fights in the northern zone, in which two Austro-Hungarian regiments fought until they almost exterminated each other. The fight was back of Asiago during one of the main attacks against the Italians.

The enemy advanced from the two flanks, and toward night a regiment of Hungarian Czechs became engaged with a regiment of Galician Poles, both wearing a different uniform and speaking a different dialect. The rifle fire was followed by a bayonet charge and then hand-to-hand struggle with grenades lasting throughout the night, until the two regiments were disentangled after heavy losses, when it became known that they belonged to the same side.

The general situation is not materially changed along the northern and Piave fronts.

FIRST REVERSE FOR LENINE

Bolshevik Government Replaced by a Coalition Cabinet.

A despatch from London says: Russia is certainly a land of dramatic surprises. Coinciding with the acceptance by Germany and Austria of Lenin's armistice proposal, the latter's Government fell. It was replaced by what is best described as a coalition Government of Socialists of the Left, including moderate Bolsheviks.

An authority on Russian affairs does not interpret this turn of events as an actual defeat for Lenin, for his influence is still felt in the present Government, but it is held to be a sign his power is waning.

WOMEN'S ROYAL NAVAL SERVICE.

A despatch from London says: It was announced officially on Thursday night that the Admiralty approved of the employment of women at various duties on shore hitherto performed by naval ratings, and have decided to establish a Women's Royal Naval Service for this purpose. Members of the service will wear distinctive uniforms, and the service will be confined to women employed on definite duties directly connected with the Royal Navy.

AMERICAN FORCES IN FRANCE STEADILY GROW IN NUMBERS.

A despatch from Washington says: Units of National Guardsmen from all the States in the country have arrived in France. Some of the men already are training within sound of the guns on the battle front.

BRITISH SHELLING TOWN OF CAMBRAI IN NEW OFFENSIVE

Infantry Fighting Around Fontaine Has Ceased Temporarily But Intense Artillery Fire Continues.

A despatch from London says: The British are pounding hard along their front in the Cambrai sector, and the town of Cambrai is now directly under the fire of the British cannon.

The battling of the infantry for the possession of Fontaine Notre Dame, and between Moeuvres and Bourlon has ceased temporarily, but at times the artillery fire is of great intensity in these regions. Near Poelcapelle and in the Arras sector the big guns of both groups of belligerents are maintaining a heavy bombardment.

Attacks on the Belgian position east of Merckem by Bavarian storming troops gave the enemy some prisoners and two machine-guns, but another hostile attack on Belgian troops in the neighborhood of Aschoep was beaten off after a bitter fight.

BRITISH REPULSE ENEMY ATTACKS IN THE GONNELIEU SECTOR

Inflict Heavy Losses Upon Germans—Successful Thrust at Passchendaele.

British Headquarters in France, Dec. 2.—Field Marshal Haig's troops yesterday were continuing their counter-attacks against the German forces who Friday penetrated the British defences in the Gonnelieu sector and also pushed a considerable salient into the British territory. Desperate fighting was proceeding about Gonnelieu this morning.

At an early hour of the forenoon the Germans had been pushed back over a considerable amount of ground which they overran yesterday. Gouzeaucourt, which the enemy held for hours and represented their extreme advance, was cleared a little after three o'clock yesterday afternoon, and later the British operations resulted in the Germans being pushed back from Quentin Ridge to east of Gouzeaucourt and from Gouzeaucourt, which lies west of Villers-Guislain. A little further north in the La Vacquerie section the Germans also had been forced to fall back.

The British a little before two o'clock this morning made a local attack in moonlight on the German positions north and north-east of Passchendaele, and about the same time a minor assault against the enemy front north-west of Goeborg. These attacks appear to have gone well as a whole.

The British were held up in the centre along the ridge for a time, but for the most part were reported to have reached their objectives, and to have penetrated from 300 to 400 yards at numerous points. The attack about Goeborg involved two strong German fortifications.

If the gain to the north along the ridge is confirmed, it will mean that the British have added much to the completeness of their observation in this region.

Sir Douglas Haig reports: "A minor operation was undertaken early this morning by the Rifle, North Country and Home County Battalions north-east of Ypres. Some fortified strong points on the main ridge north of Passchendaele were captured and a number of prisoners taken."
