ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

VIOLET :—There is no civil law prohibiting the marriage of cousins in the United States. Note-paper may be slightly scented with some delicate sachet powder.

PRIMROSE :—Radishes are served with a portion of the green stalk left on. Individual salt collars are still used. To properly can cucumbers, take them when small and let them come to a boil in a little salt water. Place them in jars and pour hot vinegar over them until the jars are filled. Add spices to suit the taste and seal. For the details of canning we refer you to "Canning and Preserving," a pamphlet published by us at 6d. (by post 7d.) or 15 cents per copy. It contains full instructions regarding the canning of vegetables and fruits of all kinds, the preparation of jams, jellies, preserves, pickles, catsups and relishes, branded fruits, home-made wines, vinegars, etc.

INQUIRY :—Women should certainly not play kissing games—indeed, sensible children do not indulge in such games nowadays. Kissing implies much familiarity and no male friend, her fiancé possibly excepted, should kiss a woman good-night. It is now considered in questionable taste for women to kiss each other when meeting on the street or in any public place.

SWEET MARIE :—Read the article on "Modish Coiffures and Combs" in THE DELINEATOR for May.
