

Senate being small, the practical effect of this system has been in a measure to give the control to University College.

The Commissioners would refer to the replies of the heads of Victoria and Queen's Colleges, in the Appendix, for a statement of further objections to the Senate as at present constituted, (Nos. 25 and 36). The suggestions by which these acknowledged defects can be remedied will be found at the conclusion.

University College has an undoubted right to a liberal support from the General Income Fund. Its chairs are filled by Professors of acknowledged ability in their respective departments, and who have done much to advance the interests of Academic education and scientific research in this Province.

The salaries of the Staff of University College as Tutors or Professors, in 1853, ranged from $600 to $2,040 per annum, exclusive of the President. In 1854 an addition of $400 per annum was made to the majority of the salaries.

In 1856, by making the provisions of the Civil Service Act a ground for application, another addition amounting to 20 per cent. to the whole salaries was obtained, and this increase made retrospective for the year 1855; and by a sliding scale adopted, having reference to term of service, a further increase is secured, so that salaries of Tutors and Professors now range from $1,000 to $2,600 per annum, exclusive of fees obtained from occasional students.

It must be borne in mind that the great object of the noble endowment for University purposes, was to secure to the utmost extent to the youth of this Province the benefits of a liberal education, and to “encourage them to persevere in the pursuit of knowledge and “sound learning.” That the endowment has been most seriously reduced, and the annual income therefrom is now year after year largely exceeded by the expenditure.
