STOP PRESS!

It just can't be done! Maintenance Wing has come to the fore with so much copy for this issue that it will be necessary to hold over much of it until the November issue. Accordingly, next month the feature will be—MAINTENANCE WING (continued).

"Maintiens Le Droit"

Under Canada's Coat of Arms
Maybe you've read our motto,
It says
"Maintiens Le Droit."
It's French.
Translated freely
It means "Uphold the Right."
And that means all Canadians,
You, and me, and Joe the Rigger too . . .
This is a maintenance job for all of us.
It means the maintenance of "the square deal,"
A decent job . . . a home . . .
We all started out with a free life,
Individual rights, liberty to speak our minds.
Now, someone challenges these things,
And it's up to us to defend 'em!
To fight . . . to maintain
The Democratic style of living,
The Christian way . . .
The indefinable something in morale
That makes a free man Free.
When we think of it that way,
We're all . . . "on maintenance"
Aren't we?
