Ottawa, 30th April, 1908.

Sir,

I beg to advise you for the information of yourself and anyone whom it may concern that Osiac Meloche is considered to be an Indian and a member of the Caughnawaga Band.

This decision naturally extends to any of the brothers and sisters of Osiac Meloche and to all descendants of Charles G. Olsson and his wife, Agathe, provided always that they have not in some way forfeited their rights.

Your obedient servant,

Harvey Peck
Deputy Superintendent General of Indian Affairs.

J. Plain, Esq.,
