Ottawa, 27th November, 1912.

Sir:-

I have to request that you will have samples of biscuits (hard tack) made in the usual way for use in connection with the tenders for Indian supplies for the approaching fiscal year, and send one package each to the following points, viz:-

Department of Indian Affairs, Ottawa.

Inland Revenue Office, Montreal.

" " " Toronto.

" " " Quebec.

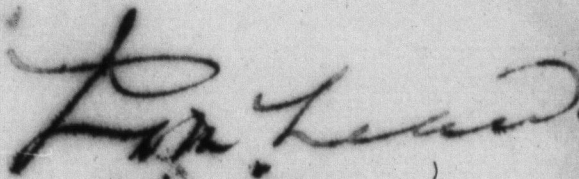

A sample should also be kept in your office.

Although the schedule does not call for a sample of soap to be on view at the different places, the Department desires that you will send with the biscuits one or two bars of the "Royal Crown" soap to the Inland Revenue offices above mentioned.

The sample of flour recently selected will be used for the next tenders.

It will not be necessary to select a sample of rice as the description in the schedule is sufficient.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.
