Sir,-

In reply to your letter of the 27th. regarding Emma James Thomas and Anne McGilliveray, I beg to say that before I can take any action to have the separation allowance and assigned pay paid through this Department instead of direct to these women, it will be necessary for you to send me the regimental numbers of the husbands, together with the number of the battalion with which they enlisted. Will you kindly supply this information as soon as possible.

Your obedient servant,

L. M. Lean
