

between the two countries; in this context they recognized the desirability of progressively removing existing restrictions and other barriers to their trade. The Ministers discussed trading developments in Europe and elsewhere in the world which are of substantial interest to both Brazil and Canada. They found a close similarity of outlook on these matters.

Dr. Horacio Lafer, Brazilian Secretary of State for External Relations (left), is shown with Canada's Secretary of State for External Affairs, Mr. Howard Green, addressing the people of Canada over the network of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation on his arrival at Uplands Airport, Ottawa.