

circulation, and in aid of colportage. We strongly advise all our Sunday Schools to make a specialty of using up all the libraries in the first part of the Catalogue, but we know that some schools that have bought repeatedly, will find it necessary to select from the list in the Appendix, where will be found other than Baptist books, including the half price books of the Religious Tract Society of London. We use our best skill in selecting this stock. It is impossible for us to read all of them except at the expense of employing a Reader. Their general excellence is undeniable. If purchasers find any objectionable doctrines taught in any of them we would be thankful if they would return the books with criticism.

All orders for special books of any publishers not found in this Catalogue, will be promptly filled.

THE BEST WAY TO ORDER A LIBRARY.

Our plan has been eminently satisfactory to our patrons. In ordering, you will please SEND US THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION :—

1. A list of books already in the Library, alphabetically arranged.
2. The average age of persons composing the classes for whom the books are required.
3. Any special books that may be desired.
4. The amount the school wishes to expend.
5. Full directions for shipping—the line of railroad and station nearest to your place, and when a long distance from a station the conveyance by which it will reach you.

POSITION, OBJECTS AND NEEDS OF THE SOCIETY.

CAPITAL.

This Society being born of the denominations' needs, derives its Capital and support from it, and all its income is for the denominations' benefit.

COLPORTAGE

Is the great work for which the Society exists. Its value, when wisely directed as a means of pointing men to Christ, and helping to win them from error is not likely to be overestimated. The statistics of the Baptist Churches of Sweden, United States and Prince Edward Island all bear witness that where our own literature has been spread freely through
