Secretary's Report.

The Ladies' Aid Society has met regularly during the past year, with an average attendance of 17.

The Relief Work, under the direction of an energetic Committee, has received the greater amount of attention. This Committee has met monthly, and visited regularly. A number of families have received aid during the past winter. Articles of clothing were made and sent to the Orphan's Home.

During the year a number of entertainments have been given. In November a Congregational Tea was given; in March an Illustrated Lecture on "Windsor Castle," by Mr. O. J. Joliffe, and in April a Literary Recital by Miss delaRonde.
