MCMASTER HALL.

This is one of the most commodious and complete College buildings in the country. It is unique in its architecture. The material is brown stone, with red brick facings. There are four stories above the basement. The dimensions are 149 x 54 feet, exclusive of an extension in the rear for kitchen, boiler-room (there is steam heating throughout), and servants' apartments. There are four lecture-rooms, chapel, parlour, library, reading-room, two dining-rooms, and a thoroughly furnished gymnasium, besides chambers and study accommodation for 54 students, allowing three rooms for every two students, a study in common, and separate chambers. Every room has independent floor and ceiling ventilation. On each floor are bath-rooms and other conveniences. No expense has been spared to secure a College building at once substantial and convenient. At the same time, it is an ornament to the city. Though in the immediate vicinity of some of the finest structures in the Province, it does not suffer by comparison.
