One Monday morning Daisy volunteered to superintend the family washing. When Nora put the clothes on to boil, the little overseer gave an astonished look, then ran to mamma, exclaiming in great excitement: "O, mamma, mamma, Nora's cooking the clothes!"—Ex.

A country vicar is telling a story of an incident that happened in his church the other Sunday. During the sermon a baby began to cry, and its mother picked it up and began to carry it toward the door.

"Stop!" the vicar exclaimed. "Don't go away. The baby is not disturbing me."

The mother continued her way to the door with the remark, "O, 'e ain't, ain't 'e? But you're a-disturbin' of 'im!"—Farm and Home.

That is a larger sum than was paid in profits to their Policyholders prior to December 31st, 1911, by all the other Companies organized in Canada during the last twenty years. It level headed men want to protect their own interests, as we believe they do, they should write us for particulars.
