Delcasse-Germany's Enemy

The war is likely to add to the reputation and prestige of Theophile Delcasse, who has become Minister of Foreign Affairs in the re-organized French Cabinet. Delcasse has had a remarkable career, being actively identified with the foreign off fairs of France for the past generation. His connection with the Foreign Office led him into frehis influence and activity that the anti-German senment has been kept alive in France. In his somewhat stormy career, he also came into conflict with the prices charged. Size knows, however, that if she does not participate in the war she cannot claim any compensa dications are that within the nest few weeks lialy will take part in the struggle against her ancient enemy. Austria, and will put an army of 500,666 first line oldiers and 1.150,000 second line troops in the field. Altogether, italy is capable of putting nearly 4,000,000 men into the field and, in addition, has a powerful navy. It is certain that Turkey's participation in the fight on the side of Germany would at once in the fight on the side of Germany would at once cause Italy to take the Dings on the opposite side

The question is often asked why Italy consented to become a member of the Triple Alliance if she and Austria were such hereditary enemies. The ADSWER is found in the fine hand of Bismarck, who formed the alliance simply because he did not wish Italy to cast in her lot on the side of France and Great Britain. He has shown in his memoirs that he had no use for Italy, but took her into the alli-ance because he did not wish her to form any closer union with France and Britain. The Triple Alliance was a strange organization, and required the genius of a Bismarck to make it effective. That it was not natural and logical alliance is shown by the fact the present crisis Italy not only did not assist her former associates, but is likely to take the field in opposition. Such a participation would mean

Sugar Prices and the War

Sugar producers and Sugar refiners will profit refineries have been taken over by the Government who are seeing to it that exorbitant prices will not be charged to condumers of sugar. In Canada and Quest conflicts with Germany, and it is largely to the United States, the price of sugar has shown marked advances, but nothing has been either country by the Gyernments to interfere with

In the spring of the present year, refined sugar however, he repaired the breech which had been sold in New York City at less than 4c. per pound, caused between France and Britain, and was instru- and raw sugar at less than 3c. per pound, duty paid being the lowest price for over a decade. This was which had for its object mutual defence against partly due to the fact that the Cuban crop, amount ing to 2,500,000 tons, was the largest on record, while the domestic beet sugar crop, amounting to 655,000 tons, was also a record crop. In addition number of times to lead to war. In 1905, his opposition to Germany's Moroccan ambitions nearly led and other places brought the total up to consider to a fundare between the two countries. Already there are signs that Italy will shortly The first 500,000 men asked for by Lord Kitchener take an active part in the campaign. General Zupelli were secured in record time, and 20,000 additional has been appointed Minister of War, and his first act in taking office was to bring home the 100,000 since the war commenced. Men are now enlisting a day, and the indications inst been put through.

It is everywhere believed that lialy will shortly cast in her lot with the Allies, and make war against the ancient enemy, Austria. It is a well-known feet that the haured of the French for the Germans is initial as compared with the hatred of the Italians for the Austrians. For generations the Italian poor ple surfered all manner of persecution and indignities at the hands of the Austrians. Shortly after the war broke out a pleblecite was taken of the Italian people and sixtyning provinces declared emphasically in favor of the Allies as against Italian support of the Triple Alliance. Since that time, there have been many tangible evidences of italy's desire to throw in her lot with the British and French. See entered a vigorous protest against Austria sowing mines in the Adristic Sea, and as a result of the profession and austrians and Austrians. The Allies are in a position to secure remounts from all parts of the social world, while Germans and Austrians. #### GERMANY FACES STARVATION.

By cutting off Germany's commerce and by driving German ships from the ocean, the British fleet is doing more, in the long run, to defeat Germany than is being done by the allied armies, in the opinion o experts. With an assurance of supplies, and gold from abroad, and a market for her products, Germany could withstand indefinitely an assault by the Russian army, and probably could permanently annex Belgium and conquer France. But with her factor ies paralyzed and the cold grip of the British fleet about her throat, Germany must fight with redoubled vigor to bring the war to a close before starvation conquers her. - San Francisco Journal of Commerce.
