The Breaking Plow.

I am the plow that turns the sod
That has lain for a thousand years;
Where the prairie's wind-tossed flowers nod

And the wolf her wild cub rears;
I come, and in my wake, like rain,
Is scattered the golden seed;
I change the leagues of lonely plain To fruited gardens and fields of grain For men and their hungry breed.

I greet the earth in its rosy morn,
I am first to stir the soil,
I bring the glory of wheat and corn
For the crowning of those who toil;
I am civilization's seal and sign, Yea, I am the mighty pen
That writes the sod with a pledge divine,
A promise to pay with bread and wine
For the sweat of honest men.

I am the end of things that were,
And the birth of things to be,
My coming makes the earth to stir
With a new and strange decree;
After its slumbers, deep and long,
I waken the drowsy sod,
And sow my furrow with lifts of song
To gladden the heart of the mighty throng Slow feeling the way to God.

A thousand summers the prairie rose Has gladdened the hermit bee,
A thousand winters the drifting snows
Have whitened the grassy sea;
Before me curls the wavering smoke
Of the Indian's smoldering fire, Behind me rise—was it God who spoke?—
At the toil-enchanted hammer's stroke,
The town and the glittering spire.

I give the soil to the one who does,
For the joy of him and his,
I rouse the slumbering world that was To the diligent world that is;
Oh! Seer with vision that looks away,
A thousand long years from now,
The marvelous nation your eyes survey
Was born of the purpose that here,
to-day,
Is guiding the breaking plow!

—Nixon Waterman, in Success.

GOSSIP

Happy Christmas, a Hereford bull, the property of Mr. A. R. Firkins, Paunton Court, Bishop's Cleeve, Herefordshire, is to cross the Atlantic to be exhibited at St. Louis.

Through the courtesy of A. MacNeillage, Secretary of the Clydesdale Society of Great Britain, we have received a copy of volume 26 of the Clydesdale Studbook, containing records of mares from 15,352 to 15,908, and of stallions from No.
11,986 to No. 12,410, inclusive.

Representative Reeder, of Kansas, saw a five-cent piece on the floor of a Pennsylvania Avenue car one afternoon while he was on his way down from the capitol.
He picked the nickel up, and said: "Is there anybody in the car who has lost a ten-dollar gold piece?" Ten people, white and black, promptly said in chorus: "I did." "All right," said Reeder, as he slid for the door, "I just found a nickel of it. I don't know where the other nine dollars and ninety-five cents went."
