out any copy or fac-simile of the whole or any part of such instiment, matter or thing.

Intent to defraud particular persons, need not be alleged or proved.

51. It shall be sufficient in any indictment for forging, altering uttering, offering, disposing of, or putting off any instrument whatsoever, where it shall be necessary to allege an intent to defraud, to allege that the party accused did the act with intent to defraud, without alleging an intent to defraud any particular person; and on the trial of any such offence it shall not be necessition sary to prove an intent to defraud any particular person, but it shall be sufficient to prove that the party accused did the charged with an intent to defraud.

Interpretation as to criminal possession.

52. Where the having any matter or thing in the custody of possession of any person is in this Act expressed to be an offence if any person has any such matter or thing in his personal custod and possession, or knowingly and wilfully has any such matter or thing in the actual custody and possession of any other person or knowingly and wilfully has any such matter or thing in dwelling-house or other building, lodging, apartment, field, other place, open or enclosed, whether belonging to or occupied by himself or not, and whether such matter or thing is so for his own use, or for the use or benefit of another, every su person shall be deemed and taken to have such matter or thing his custody or possession within the meaning of this Act.

Search for paper or implements employed in any forgery, and for forged instruments.

53. If it is made to appear, by information on oath or affirmation before a Justice of the Peace, that there is reasonable cause believe that any person has in his custody or possession without lawful authority or excuse, any Dominion or Provincial Note; any note or bill of any bank or body corporate, company, person carrying on the business of bankers, or any frame, mountainess or implement for making paper in imitation of the paper used such notes or bills, or any such paper, or any plate, wood, stope, or other material, having thereon any words, forms, devices, characters capable of producing or intended to produce the impred sion of any such note or bill, or any part thereof, or any implement, or material used or employed, or intended to be used or employed in or about any of the operations aforesaid, or forged security, document, or instrument whatsoever, or machinery, frame, mould, plate, die, seal, paper, or other matter or thing used or employed, or intended to be used or employed in the forgery of any security, document or instrument whateh ever, such Justice may, if he think fit, grant a warrant to for the same; and if the same is found upon such search, it shall be lawful to sain and if the same is found upon such search, it shall be lawful to sain and if the same is found upon such search, it shall be lawful to sain and if the same is found upon such search, it shall be lawful to sain and if the same is found upon such search, it shall be lawful to sain and if the same is found upon such search, it shall be lawful to sain and if the same is found upon such search, it shall be lawful to sain and if the same is found upon such search, it shall be lawful to sain a sain and if the same is found upon such search, it shall be lawful to sain a sain and if the same is found upon such search, it shall be lawful to sain a sain and if the same is found upon such search, it shall be lawful to sain and if the same is found upon such search, it shall be lawful to sain and if the same is found upon such search, it shall be lawful to sain and if the same is sa be lawful to seize and carry the same before some Justice of district, county or place, to be by him disposed of according in Destroying the law and all such matters and things so seized as aforesaid same. by order of the Court where any such offender is tried, or in there be no such trial, then by order of some Justice of the Peace be defaced and destroyed, or otherwise disposed of as such or Justice may direct.

Competence