CORK IS IN PANIC REPRISAL THREATS ARE CARRIED OUT

Incendiary Fires Have Already Destroyed a Dozen Large Buildings—Five Sinn Fein Clubs Burned—Fire Brigade Fired On—Reported Murder of Officers Caused Outbreak of Arson.

CORK, Nov. 30.—The odor of charred or smouldering wood pervades Cork, and Patrick street, the principal thoroughfare of the city, is unpleasantly littered with the bulging debris of five-wreathed houses.
Since Friday the sky nightly has been lighted by the glare of incendiary fires, which have destroyed a dozen large buildings, causing losses estimated at about $1,500,000.
Early today a second unsuccessful attempt was made to burn the city hall, which recently was badly damaged by a bomb explosion and fire.
No less than five Sinn Fein clubs have been destroyed.
The present series of conflagrations following warnings that reprisals would take place unless three army officers kidnapped recently from a train at Waterville were returning unharmed. A report, which has not been confirmed, is to the effect that the bodies of all three of the officers were found in a field near Waterville.
The fire brigade, when responding to an alarm Sunday night, was first used by a party of masked arsonists of men. Consequently the fire-brigade returned with a hose and Thomas Aloys Sinn Fein club was set on fire. The fire was extinguished after a quarter of eight when the that questions until the protection of two horses loaded with soldiers was afforded them.
Bombs and Petrol.
The fires usually have been started with incendiary bombs and petrol in buildings, the owners or occupants of which are believed to be Sinn Fein members. Not infrequently the fires have spread to adjoining property.
Explosions and fusillades from rifles and revolvers almost invariably furnish a terrifying accompaniment to the conflagration.
As a result of these fearful nightly ordeals Cork has become a city of nerves. Business is almost at a standstill and many persons are afraid to venture abroad, even in the daylight. Large numbers of the townsfolk have left Cork for less troubled districts.
One effect of the prolonged strain, according to physicians, has been a sharp increase in the number of patients admitted to insane asylums and also an increase in heart disease. It also has resulted in the development of a curious form of poison among adults, especially women, and St. Vitus' dance, among the children, the physicians declared.

The publishers frankly say they are intimidated to such an extent that they are now printing telegraph accounts containing the barest and most perfunctory stories of the troubled times. The panic of the people is so intense that they are reluctant to discuss the happenings and when they can be induced to talk, they speak in whispers.

Shoe Company on Halt Time

Owing to the general trade conditions, the Natural Tread Shoe Company will be working on halt time during the month of December.

Custom Smelting at Titan Steel Co.

The Titan Steel Co. have been operating a custom smelting plant at their works at North Hastings, Ont. It is expected to extract silver, gold, copper and iron from ores, an abundance of which exists in North Hastings. For instance any one with a ton of ore or so may have the reduction made at the local plant.
New blast furnaces are being installed. Mr. Portmore is also endeavoring to interest capital from New York in electric smelting of ores here.

Importing Foreigners to Lower Wages

(Special 4 p.m. Dispatch from Canadian Press Ltd.) TORONTO, Dec. 1.—Grave charges of importation of foreign laborers under a contract to lower Canadian wages, were made to the tariff commission today by S. Tooms, M.P.
P. of Peterboro, who declared labor to be in favor of a moderate tariff.
In reply to Sir Henry Drayton's demands for concrete evidence, Mr.
Tooms said he would do as Sir Henry wished, sending names of firms, laborers and places they came from.

Presentations to Two Nurses

Doctors' Appreciation of Services of Miss Greene and Miss Morrison This morning at Belleville General Hospital, the medical practitioners of the city bade farewell to Superintendent Miss Greene and the Assistant Superintendent, Miss Morrison, who are leaving the institution. As tokens of the esteem in which these nurses are held, club-bags were presented to them and an address read. Miss Greene and Miss Morrison were deeply affected by these symbols of the physicians' appreciation of their services.
The address follows:
To Miss Greene and Miss Morrison, Superintendent and Assistant Superintendent of Belleville General Hospital.
Ladies—
The medical practitioners of the city of Belleville have learned with sincere regret that you are about to sever your connection with the Belleville General Hospital, and we desire to take this opportunity of expressing to you in some slight way the high esteem in which you have always been held by the profession of this city. It is never an easy task to say farewell to those with whom we have been intimately associated for many years, and especially so, when these associations have been formed in the care of the sick and afflicted.
During the years you have labored in the welfare of this institution the changes that have been wrought are truly marvelous. As the new superintendent, and as a nurse-in-training you found this hospital an institution insignificant in proportion, in adversity financially, little known beyond the confines of our city, and too often an object of public criticism; today when you are about to lay down your work here you leave it one of the best hospitals in any of the English speaking world, financially standing high in the public estimation, a prosperous institution and a credit to our city.
To you Miss Greene as Superintendent and Miss Morrison as Assistant Superintendent much of this success is due. Your service here has been long and faithful, your interest in the hospital and its welfare has been unflinching, your love of the work and everything that pertained to the welfare of the hospital and the sick within its portals has never waned, your kindly sympathy and devotion to our patients has won their love and our esteem, your unvarying courtesy to us as physicians we can never forget.
In bidding you God speed and as a pledge of our sincerity, we ask you to accept this small gift as a token of the friendship and esteem of the profession of Belleville.

Dear Miss Greene and Miss Morrison—
It is with the deepest and most sincere regret that we have come to realize how very soon you will be separated from our common interests, in which you have spared no effort to advance and perfect, and from which your loyal presence and hearty cooperation will suffer a serious loss.

The years of faithful and untrifling service during which you unselfishly devoted your splendid talents and individual attention can never be forgotten and in appreciation we ask you to accept these small tokens of regard for which we fail to find words to convey.
Signed on behalf of the Alumnae Association,
Frances Loewens, vice-pres.
Grace Gees, Secretary.
Miss Finnie on behalf of the association presented to Miss Greene a pair of opera glasses (just with gold and mother of pearl) and to Miss Morrison a gold wrist watch.
These tokens and the expressions of regret and good will from the nurses whom they had known during their years of probation, deeply affected Miss Greene and Miss Morrison, who voiced their heartfelt appreciation.

MISS FERRIS FROM TRAINING SCHOOL
The alumnae training school presented Miss Ferris with a watch, small desk clock and Miss Morrison with a silver watch purse, which the recipients gratefully appreciated. Accompanying the gifts was the following address:
To the Superintendent and Assistant Superintendent of the Belleville General Hospital—
Dear Miss Greene and Miss Morrison—
It is with feelings of the deepest regret that we, your pupil nurses have learned that you are severing your connection with this hospital.
As the time of your departure draws nigh, we realize more and more what your presence has meant to us and the loss we are sustaining. You have always taken the keenest personal interest in us and have tried in every way to promote our welfare and progress and have treated us with kindness and justice.
We hope that your exit from this hospital may be the entrance to a broader field of the work for which you are so well qualified.
May we ask you to accept these small gifts merely as a reminder of our sincere regard for you and our appreciation of all your kindness and and of your patience with us. ing school.

ionaries of Capt. Gabriele D'Annunshadowed in an order of the day issued by Gen. Cavaglia, commander of the regulars outside of Fiume, yesterday. "We are faced with a sad task at the present moment," the order said, "but I rely upon your com-

Found Jewelry in Shoe at Rummage Sale

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Dec. 1.
—Because a prospective customer complained she could not get her feet into one of a pair of shoes at the Eastern Star rummage sale here the volunteer clerk investigated and found in the toe a small oblong box which contained four diamond rings and a brooch valued at $1, 500. The jewelry was traced to Mrs.
Thomas H. Jones, who had placed it there as protection from burglars and had forgotten about it until it was returned to her.

Driven From Home by Case of "Nerves"

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 1.
—Driven from home, as she expressed it, by a case of "nerves" superinduced by an endless chain of special newspaper correspondents, photographers, magazine writers and moving picture photographers since she successfully ran for United States Congress in the recent election, Miss Alice Robertson is here from Muskogee, resting at the home of friends.

$200 Spent For Ice Cream in Campaign

BALTIMORE, Md., Dec. 1.—Two hundred dollars spent for ice cream by the Taxpayers League of Baltimore county in the recent campaign was one result of the entry of woman into United States politics. On the list of expenses filed at Tewson, by John B. Black, treasurer for the campaign on behalf of the county charter, ice cream appears eleven times as an item of expense. The league also spent $4.99 for cake.

"Mad Mullah" Now Safe in Abyssinia

Dervish Leader Had Many Thrilling Escapes
LONDON, Dec. 1.—The "Mad Mullah," the dervish leader, who seems to bear a charmed life, is now in Abyssinia, safe from British pursuit but of his numerous wives, sons and relatives, only his eldest son and a brother escaped with him.
In the British campaign against him, 60 of his personal followers were killed, including seven of his sons, seven close relatives and four of his advisors. Six sons, his five wives, four daughters and two sisters were captured.
Picturesque details of the fruitless attempts to capture the dervish chiefdom are given in an official dispatch from Geoffrey Francis Archer, the British governor of that protectorate.
In the early months of this year the dervish forces were completely routed, but the Mullah himself once more got away into the interior.
Bombing airplanes were used in the campaign and the dispatch records that on the approach of the first air-squad the Mullah collected his people around him and awaited their coming under a white canopy used in state occasions.
Some dervishes afterwards reported that the Mullah saw in the airplanes "a divine manifestation," others said that he had been told that the machines were Turkish and came from Stambul (Constantinople) to convey the Sultan's greetings.
It was during this first air raid that the Mullah narrowly escaped with his life. His robes were stained by a bomb and he afterward prudent-ly took refuge in caves.
For many days, says the dispatch, the Mullah was pursued by the Camel Corps, often on half rations and starving on no rations at all. The chase was kept up day and night until there was nothing left to be gained from the sea to the southern border of the protectorate.
One group of fugitives whose tracks were followed turned out to be not the Mullah and his boy-guard, but a party of Abyssinians.
Most of the party were killed, the dispatch adds, and the Mullah, who was close at hand all the time, saw their fate from a hiding place on a neighboring hill.

Bolsheviks Have No Foothold in Lithuania

LONDON, Dec. 1.—Bolshevik has never gained a foothold in Lithuania, says Dr. Joseph Puryckis, the Lithuanian Minister for Foreign Affairs, who has arrived here to plead his country's cause before the British government. Various attempts, he said, have been made to introduce it there by Russian emissaries, but he declared there was no truth in rumors that a pro-Bolshevik dictatorship was contemplated in the new country on the Baltic.
"In my country there is not even a Communist party," said Dr. Puryckis. "Of the 113 members of our National Assembly, 55 are Christian Democrats; 29 belong to the Farmers Union; 15 are socialists, of a moderate type; six are Jews and three may be described as friendly to Poland, although they are adverse to a union of Lithuania with that country."

"Husband Won't Let Her Go to School"

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Whether a married woman can also be a truant from school will be decided in court here on December 2. A concrete test case has been presented as the result of the report to authorities that Mrs. John de Stefano, fourteen years old, was married in August.
Her story to the judge was that "my husband won't let me go to school."

Ex-Premier Fortifies Home Against Enemies

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 1.— Damad Feid Pasha, who recently resigned as premier, is converting his palace into something like a fortress. He is building a high wall around it, anticipating the need of protection from many of his enemies who are being let out of jail by the new cabinet.

Men Rob Dentist While at Work

BOSTON, Dec. 1.—While Dr.
Louis Kaston, a dentist, was busy with a patient in his office on the second floor of 274 Tremont St., recently, two young men walked in and drawing pistols compelled the doctor to hand over his diamond ring and stick pin valued together at $800, and all his ready cash.
They then extracted $40 from the patient and made their escape.

Arrest Smugglers and Seize Liquor

On American Side, Can. Horse, Launches and Whiskey Taken CORNWALL, Dec. 1.—On Friday officers from Malone and Massena seized a Ford car at the covered bridge at Hogansburg, across the river from here, which contained a good sized load of gin and Canadian whiskey. In the car were Dan Lak-ore and Theodora King, who were taken into custody and held for hearing on a charge of smuggling liquor.
About the same time a truck, reported to contain 125 cases of Canadian whiskey, was stopped by the officers, who gave chase. Near the Racket River the officers tried to pass the truck, when the rear axle of the pursuing car broke and the truck got away.
In connection with the whiskey running panic on the American side of the river, Collector Welland has issued a statement summarizing the arrests and seizures made so far this year. The statement says that 372 seizures of liquor have been made and 104 automobiles, in variety from a Pierce-Arrow to a Ford, were confiscated, together with 20 horses, four motor launches, 54 tons of hay and 41,159 quarts of whiskey. Upwards of 500 arrests have been made and fines were imposed ranging from $400 to $1,000 in each case. Whiskey was found in carloads of hay, boats, automobiles, trucks, pulpwood, potaatoes, secreted in butter, Christmas trees, fish boxes, steel drums and wagons.
