A Narrow Escape.

A local man whose name was unobtainable had a narrow escape from death this morning. He was lying on the canal bridge across the rails of the G. T. R., and was sleeping off a drunken stupor. Two of his friends endeavored to take him from the tracks, but he was obstinate and there remained. They informed P.C. Cox, who immediately went to the scene and found the man across the track and the early morning train at a standstill, drawn up a few feet from his body. He was taken away.

WERE POISONED

Russians Met With Peasant Treachery Near Koenigsburg.

[By Special Wire to The Courier.]

PETROGRAD, via London, Sept. 12.—How a large squad of Russian cavalryen met death from drinking poisoned water given to them by a German peasant on the road near Koenigsberg, eastern Prussia, is described by the Moscow correspondent of The Rjetsch.

The cavalry were riding from Insterberg over rough roads and in intense heat, says the correspondent. The thirty troopers stopped at a small village and asked a peasant for a drink. He brought out two pails of water. shortly after drinking it nearly one hundred men were attacked with spasms indicating poisoning. Four of the troopers returned to the village and demanded that the peasant drink from the same pails. When he refused they took him captive and turned him over to their officers for court martial.

William Eidt was killed on a farm near Clifford by being drawn into a threshing machine he was feeding.

The government has issued an order in council exempting from homesteading those settlers in the west who find it necessary to seek employment elsewhere owing to failure of their crops.

Boilers Good.

The report of Engineer Stuart of the Boiler Inspection and Insurance Company shows that the boilers of the steam shovel, and of the new road roller and of the traction engine, which have recently been inspected, are in good condition and in fine repair.

Visit of Inspection.

The Brantford Street Railway Commissioners paid a visit of inspection to London yesterday when they gained much information upon the system of running the railway in the Forest City They were entertained by Mr. Campbell of the Preston Carriage and Coach Co., and by Mr. King of the London Street Railway.

More Unemployed.

Hilton Wilkes Writes.

Major Gordon Smith this morning received a letter from Lieutenant Hilton Wilkes, who says that the sight of horses is too much for the Dragoons, who will go across with the transport section of the first contingent. He also mentions the fact that although the men are not fully equipped, they are in good shape and getting three good meals a day. Harry Watson has, he says, been appointed pay-master in the 2nd. Battalion, while the writer was given a commission in the fourth battalion. He speaks well of the behaviour of the boys.

Splendid Work This.

An old Brantford lady aged 82 years is surprised and pleased everybody at the Children's Shelter yesterday by presenting six pairs of socks the result of her own handiwork. They are to go with other goods to the Brantford soldiers. Little incidents such as these are continually being noticed in the work all over the city and they show a patriotism of stern stuff among all classes. The ladies are meeting again Tuesday at the Children's Shelter in order to rush completion of more pneumonia jacks, when the second shipment will be ready.

Women's Institute.

The September meeting of Tutela Woman's Institute met at Bellview school, vice-president, Mrs. T. Hargraves in the chair. After the usual opening exercises and minutes of last meeting read, Miss Kestle presided at the piano and the scholars marched to the large auditorium and sang very enthusiastically a patriotic song and other selections, returning to their room with marked order. The meeting was principally business, Some time was spent discussing where help was mostly needed. A piano duet by the Misses Hargraves was much appreciated. Paper on "Laws of Canada regarding women," was very ably given by Miss Carrow, and contained much information nd truth. A most lamentable fact was mentioned that Canadian children are not as obedient or reverent as the children of the Old Land. The home training and government is not what tional Anthem," Miss Carrow and it should be. After singing the Naher assistants served dainty refreshments. All were given an opportunity of seeing the interior of Bellview school which is one of the finest and best equipped; system and order are dominant throughout. The people of Belview section are to be congratulated on having a most persevering and efficient principal. The October meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. D. McLellan, Mt. Pleasant road.

WAS KILLED AT CROSSING ST. PAUL AVE.

Local Foreigner Met His Death This Morning on the G. T. R.

An unknown man was struck and killed upon the Grand Trunk tracks a short distance from the St. Paul's Avenue crossing, about a quarter to eleven this morning. He appears to be a Russian Pole of about 26 years of age, and he has for some time resided in the city at 24 Wadsworth street, and also at 89 Pearl street. Several people who were gathering apples at this point saw the accident, and from the most reliable accounts it seems that the dead man had been gathering apples and was walking along the track when he was struck from behind by an engine and thrown bodily forward to fall upon his face. He lay prone, and was found to be dead when the onlookers got to the spot.

One account says that the man got out of the track of one train and stepped in front of another which was eastbound for London. The injuries are a dislocated neck and badly bruised face, and death was apparently instantaneous. In his clothing, which was of the poorest description, a small notebook was found, which indicated that he had been in St. Catharines and Stratford at different times. In the book was the name Olchsa Polabruick, 89 Pearl St., Brantford, but it is not definitely known that this is the man's name. His gang number was marked 11,332, and suggests employment with a railway gang.

There is little doubt that the deceased was in a starving condition for he only yesterday was supplied with bread by Louis Stander, and he has several times visited the missionary's home. and the fact that he was gathering apples when he was killed, denotes that he was in the poorest circumstances. In his pockets a number of apples were found as well as a handkerchief full of them by his side.

Up to the time of going to press he had not been identified, for while he was known to many local foreigners his name was not generally known. Some foreigners saw him this morning but none of them knew his name.

IN SWITZERLAND

Fifty German Officers and Men Were Taken Prisoners.

[By Special Wire to the Courier]

GENEVA, Switzerland, Sept. 12.—via Paris, Sept. 12.—Since the outbreak of the war about 50 German officers and men have been forced across the frontier. They were promptly made prisoners. Switzerland is determined to protect her neutrality, though it is costing the nation $300,000 daily, with no hope of indemnity after the war.

The rumor that General Von Deimling is a prisoner in Switzerland, is untrue.

Prince William of Wied continues to stay at Lugano, where he has arrived from Albania. Diplomatists of the various nations are his principal callers.

The total of Toronto's assessment is $576,444,520, an increase of $63,000,000 and the population 470,144.

tract devoted entirely to the raisi of crops. Now it is a city of ten with a population of over 40,000 m with more arriving each day. T camp boasts of two excellent Bou vards known as Boulevard Cante and Boulevard Main . The form consists entirely of wooden sha where one is enabled to purchase a thing from sealing wax to battlesh and, take it from me, they are ing an excellent business, at pri that reach to the roof. An ordina candle hits your change pocket fo dime; while an apple that could s refuge behind one's wisdom too sets you back a nickle. We are earnestly looking forward to the der to "entrain." As to the meals, "chuck" one can hardly complain course we do not have uniform waiters, nor do we have an orches handing out the latest; more likely get a "spud" in the back of neck from one who is not quite hungry as he at first thought.. W we do get is wholesome and s stantial, and if anyone goes hun it is his own fault. The air here most invigorating and it is no un ual sight to see the boys doubl back on the line to get their sec handout. Non-commissioned offic are stationed at the lines to prev
this, but a hurried wash of cante leaves no trace of former rations, sequently they make good for second feed.

At night the place is brillia lighted by electricity, and the eng eer corps have put in busy hours m ing roadways. The sanitary sys is excellent, and as yet not one of fever has been reported.
