Most Perfect Woman in the World's History

A Daughter

'A Daughter of the Gods" glorifies the beauty of life, makes supreme use of the loveliness of the most wonderful woman in all the world: makes elves and fairies believable and real and blends them with a story of gigantic proportions. Here is a story as pure as filtered air and as cleansed as the deep sea.

On Saturday evening the Athenaeum Society presented the play marrying Peggy to a good sized audience. Sunday morning and evening College Hal Iwas well filled to hear Dr. George E. Hoar President of Newton Theological Seminary, Mass. His morning subject was the confession of Nicodemus "We know that thou art a teacher sent from God. He then discoursed on these fundamental truths. He dwelt upon Socrates the great Greek teacher who was poisoned because he taught of a different divinity than other Greeks. Plato in hisPhardo spoke of him as in death the noblest in lift the wisest and most just. Four hundred years after a young Jewish Teacher suffered death at the hands of his own Jewish reople for similar teaching. The leson he drew for the graduating class to considen was hrist the Way the Truth and uating class to considen was Christ the Way the Truth and
