About 2 a.m. on Sunday the barn of the Ottawa hotel, Newboro, was discovered to be on fire. Prompt measures were taken to fight the fire, but it had gained too much headway, and the hotel and Miss McDonald's house were both destroyed. Miss Proud had her millinery shop in Miss-McDonald's house and her loss will be about $100. The hotel was valued at $5,000 and was insured for $2,500. Miss McDonald had no insurance and her loss is placed at $1,500. Nearly everything in the hotel was saved.

There are now only a few left of those citizens who a few years ago constituted the "hoss committee" of this village, to whom the pedigrees and records of all equines, past and present, were as an open book, but still the love for a good horse, has never died. Indeed, there is just now evidence of interest in trotting stock. Several promising additions to the spendy horses of the village have re-cently been made and a lease of the old race-track from Mr. W. G. Parish has been secured and it is now being placed in first class shape for training. Whether there will be a meeting held this season remains to be seen, but some interesting matched events should grow out of the concentration here of so many fast horses.

Gananoque Reporter: Mr. Chas. Brennan, who recently removed to a hotel he had purchased in Lyndhurst, has failed to secure a license. The Commissioners reasoned that as one license each is all that seems to be necessary at Seeley's Bay, Elgin and Delta, there is no need of a second one at Lyndhurst. So Charlie got left.

An exchange says: One day last week a couple of girls went to a livery stable and asked for a gentle horse, as they wanted to drive out in the country a few miles. The man gave them one and told them the horse would be all right if they kept the rein from his tail. When they returned in the evening he asked them if they had any trouble. "Oh, no," said one, "there was one little shower, but we had an umbrella and we took turns at holding it over the horse's tail, so that there was not a drop of rain touched it, and we got along all right."
That explains the dazed look the liveryman has been wearing the past

ODD FELLOWS AT CHURCH

On Sunday last, Farmersville Lodge No. 237 I.O.O.F. celebrated the 84th beir order on the American contin ent by attending divine service in the Methodist church. Members of the order were present from Napanee, Kemptyille, Delta, and from all the near-by villages to which the member ship of the local lodge extends. The attendance was probably the largest in the history of the order in Athens. At the lodge room the members were marshalled by Mr. W. J. Birch, of Delta and marched to the church, where a sermon of special interest to to the order was delivered by the pastor, Rev. W. E. Reynolds, from Gal. VI.: 2. At the close of the service the brethren returned to the lodge room, and the presiding officer having called the meeting to order, brief but encouraging addresses were delivered by visiting members, and a hearty vote of thanks was tendered to the minister, choir and congregation for the services of the day.
Oddfellowship in this part of St.

Lawrence district has made great gains within the past year and new members are being continually added to the roll.
