

Cold-Sores

Are your hands chapped, cracked or sore? Have you "cold cracks" which open and bleed when the skin is drawn tight? Have you a cold sore, frost bite, chilblains, or a "raw" place, which at times makes it agony for you to go about your household duties? If so, Zam-Buk will give you relief, and will heal the frost-damaged skin, Adeint the sore places at night, Zam-Buk's rich healing essences will sink into the wounds, end the smarting, and will heal quickly.

Mrs. Yellen, of Portland, says: hands were so sore and cracked that it was sgony to put them near water. When I did so they would smart and burn as if I had scalded them. I seemed quite unable to get relief from anything I put on them until I tried Zam-Buk, and it succeeded when all else had filled. and it succeeded when all else had failed. It closed the big cracks, gave one case, soothed the inflammation, and n a very short time healed my hands.

Zam-Buk also cures chafing, rashes, winter neems, piles, ulcors, festering sores, ore heads mid backs, abucases, pimples, ring-usorm, etc., n's, hurns, bruises, sealds, oprains. Of all iruguits and stores, or post free from the Zam-

Eelshazzar's Feast and Fate-World's 6 17-30. Temperance Lesson.-

Commentary.-1. Beishazzar's impious feast (vs. 1-4.) Beishazzar was probably not more than seventeen years old at this time. The army of Cyrus was enking seemed to think there was no danger, since the city was strongly fortinen, and there appeared to be no possihe way for the Persans to gain en-trance to the city. Secure in these de-fenses, Belshazzar and a thousand of the men of the nation gave themselves to reveiry. While inflamed with over to revelry. While inflamed with wine the king had the golden and silver drinking vessels brought in, which had been taken from the temple in Jerusaem. (and they were sacrilegiously used during the feast by the guests in drinkvine. In addition to this act of desecration of the sacred vessels, feasters gave honor to the gods of Baby-'r impiety deserved severe rebake. Their attention was arrested in a most startling manner. The revelry ceased and an end came to the sacrilege. II. The writing on the wall (vs. 5-16.) During this profune revelry a hand appeared writing upon the wall of the magnificent banqueting hall. The king ad his guests were startled at the rest. s guests were startled at the sight, ad immediately sought for the interpretation of the strange characters mysteriously written. The wise men of the were unable to tell the meaning, but the queen, Belshazzar's mother, thought of Daniel, the Jewish captive, and desired to have him brought in, for she had confidence in his skill. Daniel by reputation as a man of superior powers, and was therefore willing to take advantage of his skill in the interpretation of the strange message.

III. Belshazzar reproved (vs. 17-24.)
17. Let thy gifts be to thyself—Daniel was not influenced to undertake the explanation of the writing by the offer of gifts. He did not wish them. His one purpose was to declare truly the important message divinely sent to Belshazzar. I will read—He showed no hesitancy, for knew that God was with him God gave The power to give greatness and honor was not in the idols which Belshazzar worshipped but in Jehovah. Nebuchadnezzar had recognized that power at times during his life. Thy father—Grandfather. This form of expression was used frequently in speaking of an ancestor. 19. Majesty—in this verse Daniel-gives a vivid picture of an Oriental king of ancient times possessed of absolute power. He had the power of life and death over his subjects. 20. His mind hardened in pride—His success as a ruler resulted in his becoming haughty and arrogant. He was deposed

He was remover from being king, no by human power, but by an act of Je hovah. "He became insane, and the reins of government were taken out of his hands."—Clarke. 21. Driven from the sons of men-Nebuchadnezzar's malbeasts of the field and to live like them. The account is given in Daniel 4.. Till he knew-It took him seven years to learn the lesson that Jehovah is "the most high God." 22. Hast thou humbled ... though thou knewest-Belshazzar did not take the lesson of Nebuchadnezzar's calamity to heart, and Daniel charged home upon him his failure. The king knew his duty, but failed to do it.

23. hast lifted up theyself against the Lord—Three serious charges were brought against the king. I. He had desecrated the sacred vessels of the house of the Lord by using them to dishibit wing in a drugher parally? drink wine in a drunken revelry. 2. He drink which is a drinken reveity. 2. He had given himself to the service of gods of silver and gold of brass, iron, wood and stone." 3. He had neglected the true God. Daniel may be classed with Nathan (2 Sam. 12:7), Elijah (1 Kings 18:17, 18), Jeremish (Jer. 36: 27-31) and John the Baptist (Luke 3: 19, 20) in his feedlessness in repressing signs. 20) in his fearlessness in reproving sin in high places. 24. hand sent—The hand was sent from God to portray in most powerful manner the doom of the king and the nation because of their haughtiness and idolatry.

IV. The writing interpreted (vs. 25-29). 25. the writing—The word is not the one that ordinarily means to write but one that means rather to print or stamp.—Cam. Bible, mene, mene— Numbered. The word mene has been Minipered, the word mene has been identified with the Hebrew "manch," a weight, tekel—Weighed. This has been found to be another weight, upharsin—Divided. It represents still another weight, it required the direct help of the Lord for Daniel to be able to give the proper interpretation to these comparatively simple words. Some have paratively simple words. Some have supposed that the words were written in such characters or in such form that they were difficult to comprehend. The word "mene," was repeated for empha

26. numbered thy kingdom-The end was much nearer than Belshazzar imagined. It was to come that night. 27. found wanting—As the merchant weighs the gold or silver received in payment for wares and may find it short in for wares and may find it short in weight, so Belshazzar had fallen short of what he should have been as king of a great nation. He was wanting in morality, piety and spiritual force. 28. peres—The singular form of the plural "pharsin." The prefix "u" means "and." divided—Brakes un and given to another nation. The Missian are Parsians had creation. The Means and given to another nation. The Means and Persians had been united into one nation by Syrus. 29, purple (R. V.)—This was a symbol of royalty. Daniel was given a place in the king's court, chain of gold—Au emblem of his high office, third ruler in the kingdom. Daniel was next to Belazyze stain—The punishment shazzar slain—The punishment foretold had a speedy fulfilment. The king lost his life, But Daniel continued under the new kingdom. Darins the Mede and Cyrus the Persian appear to have been associated in the government of conquered Babylon. With regard to the transfer of power to the Medes, Driver says: "The idea of the war-pears to be that the Medes and Persians were acting in concord with the capture of Bablyon (v. 28); but that when the she had confidence in his skill. Daniel must have been at least eighty years old at that time. To him the king repeated the offer of great reward on condition that he should interpret the handwritting on the wall. The king knew Daniel in the capital."

of Bablyon (v. 28); but that when the city was taken, Darius the Mede, by a joint agreement between the two peoples (or their rulers), received the king dom or (9: 1) was made king, and (ch. 6) took up his residence in Babylon as his capital."

An Innovation in Oil Heaters

The Perfection Smokeless Oil Heater, with its drums enameled in turquoise, is an ornament to any room, whether in the country or city home.

No home is quite complete without a Perfection Oil I-leater. It is a necessity in the fall and spring, when it is too warm to start the regular heating apparatus, and too cool to be without heat. In the midst of winter it is often convenient as an auxiliary heater, as there are always some cold corners in a house.

The enameled heater always presents a nice appearance, as the enamel will not tarnish or burn off. It is not an "enamel paint," but it is the same as the enamel of your cooking utensils.

The Perfection is the most reliable and convenient portable heating device you can find. An automatically-locking flame spreader prevents turning the wick high enough to smoke.

A Remarkable and Convincing Statement of the Success of Cuticura Soap and Ointment in the Treatment of the Pain, Itching and Burning of Eczema

"I, the undersigned, cannot give enough praise to the Cuticura Remedies. I had been doctoring for at least a year for exzema on my foot. I had tried doctor after doctor all to no avail. When a young girl I sprained my ankle three different times, paying little or no attention to it, when five years ago a small spot showed upon my left ankle. I was worried and sent for a doctor. He said it was exzems. He drew a small bone from the ankle about the size of a match and about an inch long. The small hole grew to about the size of an apple, and the ezzema spread to the kines. The doctors never could heal the hole in the ankle. The whole foot ran water all the time.

"My husband and my sons were up night and day wheeling me from one room to another in the hope of giving me some relief. I would sit for hours at a time in front of other in the hope of giving me some relict. I would sit for hours at a time in front of the fireplace hoping for daybreak. The pain was so intense I was almost crasy, in fact, I would lose my reason for hours at a time. One day a friend of mine dropped in to see me. No more had she glanced at my foot than she exclaimed, Mrs. Finnegan, why in the world don't you try the Outcura Remediest? Being disgusted with the doctors and their medicine, and not being able to sleep at all, I decaded to give the Cuticura Scap end Cuticura Oliminent a trail. PRACTICAL SURVEY. Topic .- Decisive events.

I. For the king and kingdom of Bahy Leading to the deliverance of Judah.

I. For the king and kingdom of Babylon. In this history we have the summing up of the case against a doomed man, a man who had failed of life's purpose. Little as Belshazzar dreamed of it, his life had been placed in the balances of eternal and unerring justice, and had been impartially weighed. On the one side of the balance were placed Belshazzar's opportunities, on the other his sins. The measure of his responsibility was proportioned to the degree of his knowledge. "Knowledge must be the first element in the balance of judgment where an intelligent being renders his account to a personal God." Belshazzar's knowledge of those things which befeli Nebuchadnezzar rendered him inexcusable, Gentile monarch though he was, he had had exceptional opportunities for knowing the truth of God, yet he af-fronted God and put contempt on him. How appalling is the catalogue of ag-gravated crimes with which Belshazzar was charged - obstinate impenitence, a proud, arrogant self-exaltation, a pro fane impiety, a marked insult cast upon the honor and glory due unto God, Such godlessness worked itself out and godlessness worked itself out and brought a final judgment on the long course of his guilty life. The eye of the great Judge was upon that scene of pro-fanity and dissipation. Then the conscience of Belshazzar awoke at an un-expected moment, and told him be had no good reason to expect good news from heaven. In vain he looked, in vain from heaven. In vain he tooked, in and he called upon those around him and those, who were under his control to help solve his perplexity. He proclaimed his own defeat at the moment when he had inspired others with the idea of victory and supremacy. It was a part of his punishment of Balshazzar to expose his dismay to the very persons whom he had led on in sin. Thus shame was united with terror. When a crisis omes men fall into their right relations. world honor. He was absolute master of the greatest palace and the greatest oughts rose clear and strong and broke through the fumes of intoxication and troubled him. He had had his opportunities, his examples, his warnings yet he was drunken on the night of the siege, entirely unfitted for the respon-sibilities of his office. That night began with a great festival, a royal banquet in which no restraint was placed upon profanity, intemperance, vain am-usements or worldly-mindedness of any character. Note the change in the programme, when the last solemn warning was given to the king, a warning which silenced in as moment the roar of impious mirth, a warning in which cy was exhibited. The king had been weighed in the balances of human op-inion and approved. Then he was weighed in the balances of conscience judged. Still further he was weighed in the balances of divine justice and demned. Though boldest in vice Belshar. zar was most destitute of courage when danger came. He took the strange writ ing as intended for himself. His eyes be-held the strange writing and at the same time looked in upon his own corrupt unbearable. . II. Leading to the deliverance of Judah. No terror blanched the cheek Daniel. It was his Father's hand that wrote and he only could interpret God's sentence of doon, These events were bringing nearer the time when his people should see better days. He could be tranquil while Belshazzar trembled. The end of the seventy years of captivity for Judah was near. The march of justice may be slow, but her steps are resistless and her movements punctual. The prophets had declared the downfall of Babylon and the rise of Medo-Persian empire. The sins and the death of Belshazzar were foretold. The death of beisnazzir were forecom. The judgment of that night had long been threatened. Yet up to the very hour the probability seemed against such an oc-currence, but when it came it settled for-ever the fate of its victims. Belshazzar's feast of boasting and blasphemy was the last ceremonial of the Chaldean kings. The vices of Belshazzar were vices of his family heart. Though he could not read the neaning he felt it, and the suspense was

BRADSTREET'S REPORT.

Montreal trade reports to Bradstreet's say the past week has seen very little change in general conditions. Wholesale change in general conditions. Wholesale lines are moving briskly and business men generally seem confident that the balance of the year will see a large turnover of merchandise. Large shipments of holiday goods are being made and manufacturers and dealers in fancy lines are exceedingly busy. For staple lines there is an excellent seasonable business. Industries appear, without exception, to be actively engaged and the demand for all kinds of labor is brisk. Markets for commodities show little change. Values are firmly held and in the majority of cases any tendency tothe majority of cases any tendency to-wards change is upward. Trade in the surrounding district is steady in charac-ter. Deliveries of country produce con-tinue very large. Collections are vari-ously reported, but in the main they seem to be satisfactory.

Toronto reports to Bradstreet's say all lies of busines there continues active. Wholesalers are sending out sarge ship-ments of goods, and orders continue to ments of goods, and orders continue to come in freely. The demand for houday lines has been particularly heavy, and as a result factories are working overtime and in many cases are unable to turn out enough goods to meet all demands. The sorting trade in dry goods, etc., has also been brisk, indicating a good retail movement in all parts of the country. City trade continues excellent. Collections and remittances are reported generally good.

Vancouver and Victoria reports say an excellent business continues to move an excellent business continues to move in general lines there. Quebec reports to Bradstreet's say: The rain of the past week has made-country roads pretty had in some places. and the movements of travellers have been retarded.

MONTREAL LIVE STOCK.

Mentreal, Nov. 1.—At the Canadian Pacific Live Stock Market the offerings this morning were 800 cattle, 509 sheep, and ismbs. 1.700 hogs and 30 calves. On account of the colder weather and the smaller supply of cattle on the market a firm feeling prevailed, and the advance in prices noted on Monday wat well maintained. The demand was fairly good for all grades and a more secret trade was done. Choice steers sold at 5 3-4c, good at 5 1-2c, and fairly go
