SIR GEO. ROSS NO BETTER.
Toronto, March 6.—Sir George Ross is no better today and is in a state of coma. He may last some time or may pass away suddenly.

JOSEPH MULLETT IN DEFENCE.

"That I was justified in refusing to put the mains through the Gold property is, I think, proved by the fact that at the present time the property is still unoccupied and if water mains had been put in when Mr. Gold wanted them in 1911 they would have produced absolutely no revenue to pay the interest on capital expenditure. My refusal to carry out Mr. Gold's wishes at that time, is I believe, the real reason for my dismissal.

"I may say that during 36 years I have occupied only three positions. For ten years I was with an engineering firm in England; then for some years I was in the employ of the City of Nanaimo with water until the city took over the system, and afterwards I was superintendent of the water department in the employ of the City Council. I was at Nanaimo 21 years in all and left there to come to South Vancouver in the fall of 1909. I think I may safely say that during the whole of the time I served under Reeve Pound and Reeve Kerr my services gave satisfaction, and it was not until Mr. Gold took office that any trouble arose. Even then I was not consulted in any way but I was dismissed without any explanation or reason being given."

Snow and Rudy, the comedy team, again got away with honors, causing much laughter and necessitating several returns to the stage. Miss Jessica, the singer, makes a good impression and the rest of the show is in keeping.
