

record parade for the old 13th! Last evening the regiment turned out 589 officers and men, the largest in the history of the regiment since its in ception. Enthusiasm in military circles increasing every day in this fair city Under the present system the burden of the expense falls on the officers, and they think the Government should do something in the matter. Young men all over, the city are willing and anxious to join, but they cannot be accommodated, for the reason that the regiment is already over strength. Col. Moore expressed his extreme pleasure at the magnificent turnout of the men, and said that no commanding officer could look for better results than were being obtained right now. Col. Moore presented the badge for the best shot in the regiment to Color-Sergt. John Freeborn for the season of 1907 last evening. Before the march out the colonel asked for three cheers for the victorious tug-of-war team, and they were given with a will by the men. The regiment took a short march out, and did company drill on the Market Square. Owing to the increased strength of the companies, the regiment had to march through the streets in column of half companies, which made it look as if it was composed of fourteen good sized companies. Col. Moore announced the churcn parade for Sunday, and asked that every ed the badge for the best shot in the ade for Sunday, and asked that every man look spick and span for the occasion.

The parade state was as follows:
Loeut.-Col. Moore, Majors Mewburn and Ross, Capt. Domville, adjutant; Major
Herring, paymaster; Capt. Carter, surgeon; Major Lester, quartermaster; Major Forneret, chaplain; staff-sergeants 11, buglers 44, band 46, bearers 18, signatlers 0, 4'50, B 66, C 63, D 55, E 55, r 44, G 32, H 61, total 589.

The route of the church parade of the 13tl. Regiment for Sunday morning will be James to King street to All Saints' Church, on the march up. On the return, the regiment will march on Queen to Main to James to the Drill Hall. This is a slight change from the usual route, and it was thought advisable, as it will not interfere with the street railway traffic.

The standing of the different compar ies in the company competition of 13th Regiment is as follows:

Below will be seen the shooting programme for the season for the 13th and 91st Regiments. As can be seen, many of the events are the regulation matches, but many days have been laid out for practice. This is something that will be received by the members of the regiments with gladness, as there is no doubt but that practice makes perfect, and even the most experienced shots require it. There will be a large number of recruits in the ranks this year, and they will need considerable hard work to get in shape. One new item on the list is the Logic shelter trench competition for the members of the 91st Regiment. This will be held on Oct. 10, and will be similar in many respects to the McLaren shelter trench competition. It is evident that the boys who have a liking for shooting will have their work cut out for them this season, and it would not be surprising if some new wonders were unearthed for the Bisley and other teams.

The sergeants' mess of the 13th Regiment feels highly elated over the success of the tug-of-war team that was sent to the military athletic tournament held in Toronto on Thursday night. All the teams from the Toronto regiments were confident of pulling in the coveted trophy, and did not for a moment imagine that there were a few husky boys from the town of the Tigers who could hang on to a rope and pull the rest of the bunch around the floor with as much ease as the Tigers romp away with the ease as the Tigers romp away with the Argonauts when they play football. The team from Stanley Barracks was the first to fall under the spell of the 13th stalwarts. Next came the Q. O. R., and they were followed by the 48th, all going they were followed by the 48th, all going down in a row. Sergt. Major Huggins, as the captain of the team, is the most tickled man in the mess. He is of the opinion that the Toronto boys will have something to think about for a while

The London Regiment of the new British territorial army will be made up of 28 battalions, eight in the city and twenty in the "county" of London. There are some big regiments in the services of other countries, but this London corps, with its 20,000 men, will pass them all. If it is as good as it is strong in sumbers it will be a wonder.

The United Service Gazette of London publishes the following: "Some very grim stories are told of Lord Kitchener, the stories are told of Lord Kitchener, the commander-in-chief, and we have just read one which, although we cannot vouch for the truth of it, has a decided Kitchener flavor about it. A young subsiltern who was in charge of some works that were in course of construction in the Punjab, had the misfortune to lose some native workmen through an accident with dynamite. Fearful of a reprimand from headquarters, he telegraphed to the commander-in-chief: Regret to report killing of twelve labouers by dynamite accident. Back is said to have come the laconic message: 'Do you want any more dynamite?'" regiments have received their orders from headquarters in regard to the Quebec tercentenary and everything looks bright for one of the best trips the regiments has ever taken. Of course only 50 per cent. of the training establishment will go, but even at that there is the probability that quite a number of the men would be unable to go, so there is little need of worry on that score. Twenty-seven thousand officers and men will be the representation of Canada's militia at the tercentenary, on July 19th to 31st. This is 5,000 more than the first estimate made by the military authorities. the military at the celebration were re-ceived yesterday afternoon, and are of special interest to the officers and men of the city and rural corps. All qualified and warrant officers as well as the bri-gade and divisional staffs have been or-dered to take part. It is especially stat-ed that no provisional officer can at-tend. Rural battalions will be permitted who have served their training three years and more.

With the city corps it is provided that they must make their choice of two alternatives which are given them. The first is that they may take their band, their officers and 50 per cent. of their establishment and receive at least eight days' pay or perhaps more, and subsistence while away as well as their transport. The second is that they may take their full establishment and obtain transportation and subsistence for all, but they will only draw pay for four days. Each infantry regiment will in addition be allowed to take five buglers, who, it is stipulated, must be included in the 50 per cent. of their establish; ment. This also applies to the cavalry and artillery, who will only be allowed not more than three buglers.

I suffered for many years with kidney trouble, with bad pain in the back and all symptoms of disease of the kidneys. I took every known kidney remedy and kidney pill, but nothing gave me relief and I was getting discouraged. I was advised to try "Fruit-a-tives" and I did so-and this medicine cured me when every other remedy failed. I used altogether fifteen boxes of "Fruit-a-tives' and from the outset they gave me relief and I am now practically well again, no pain in the back, no distress, and all the symptoms of severe kidney disease have entirely left me. I am very thankful to this statement for the sake of others who may suffer as I suffered and to them I say "Try Fruit-a-tives."

representatives of the railways. The Celebration Commission it is understood, had a conference with the railway officials last week in Montreal, and the outcome is a well thought of plan which will remove any difficulties in the way of transporting the troops, which at one time threatened to interfere to some extent with the success of the celebration. The Army Service Corps will have charge of the moving of the troops which will come from Port Arthur and the east. But a small representation of the militia at points farther west will attend, and the railways expect to meet the wishes of the militia authorities, though the tourist traffic will be at its height. If a shortage of rolling stock presents itself to the Canadian railways it is understood the railways of the United States will come to the assistance of the lines in Canada and furnish all as the necessary cars and other equipments 1,267; and auxiliaries corps, 598.

The following despatch has been received from Montreal: "There is much confusion in local military circles over the orders recently issued by the department respecting the pay for the corps attending the Quebec tercentenary, and the officers at Ottawa are likely to be bombarded with encycles. Some officers take the orders to mean that the pay for the men at Quebec will constitute the annual drill pay for the season. This would come hard on some of the corps, which are funding their drill pay for armory or other purposes. Some of the officers seem to think that the orders being of such an unsatisfactory nature may determine some of the corps not to take part." the necessary cars and other equipments to meet the needs.

The local corps are going to make a real stay, and take time to enjoy the trip. The 91st Regiment will leave here on the Saturday afternoon, and will be in Quebec until the following Friday, thus giving the regiment nearly a week's outing.

to take part."

At present the question has not been brought up by the members of the local regiments, and will not give much worry to the men, as not many of the city regiment depend solely on their camp Militia orders to-day contain authority for the organization of several new regimental units and a number of additional companies and squadrons to the strength of the Canadian militia. The blood not only carries nourishment to the cells and tissues of the body ment to the cells and tissues of the body but also takes up the poisonous waste material or ashes which remain from the fire of life.

These poisonous substances can only be removed from the blood by the liver and kidneys and this accounts for the extraordinary success of Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills as a means of purifying the blood.

By acting directly and specifically on these organs the medicine ensures regular and healthful action of the bowels and a thorough cleansing and invigorating of the whole digestive and excretory systems.
