BY ELECTRICITY!

No more trouble in getting children's pictures taken. I can now work in connection with my Camera, an ingeniously constructed Apparatus, worked by Electricity, enabling me to produce a beautiful Picture of any child in one second of time—All we need now is a wink from the little folks, and we have a gem of the most secure made.
In thanking the people of Miramichi for their very liberal patronage during my stay in Chatham, I can assure them in future getting even better work done by me than in the past. For the greater facilities, greater will be the results. I have just procured at a great expense the very latest improvements in apparatus. I keep on hand a large stock of pictures, such as Oil paintings, Chromos, and Mottos. Also a very large stock of picture frames and mouldings. Pictures framed in any style desired, with the most artistic and perfect results. I do not wish as I am the only photographer here to exact unreasonably high prices. Old faded pictures and pictures that have been taken by inexperienced workmen, can be renewed by me, enlarged and finished in Ink, Oil, Water Colors or Crayon. Rooms—Opposite Masonic Hall.

NOTICE.

THE public are hereby cautioned against paying subscriptions or amounts for advertisements to any person on behalf of the STAR, unless said person hold written authority from me to collect and receive the same.

Property Purchase.
L. J. Tweedie, Esq., purchased the Sargent property at Escuminac, sold by the Sheriff Wednesday.
Explosion in a Mill.
There was an explosion of one of the boilers in Park's mill Newcastle, Thursday. The water had got run out.
Repairs and Building.
Messrs. Crimmon and Carter have returned home after completing repairs to Negmas Beach, and Crab Island Light Houses. They likewise erected a beacon on Crab Island.

An Appeal.
We ask in the name of the people who are threatened every day, that the Board of Health exterminate the cess-pools and poisonous sinks, that send out death through the town.
Diphtheria.
We regret to announce the death by diphtheria of a bright little girl aged 3 daughter of Mr James Barden. The little thing after suffering much died yesterday. There are many other cases in town.
Bazaar.
The ladies of the St. Andrew's church, Chatham, purpose holding a bazaar and soiree in the Masonic Hall on the evening of the 22d inst. The preparations have been extensive, and the whole will doubtless be a great success.

Personal.
Mr. William Anslow, one of the proprietors of the Advocate, was in Chatham yesterday, on business connected with his paper.
The Surveyor General, and Mr Wm. Muirhead, Jr., came up from St. John yesterday.
Public Improvements.
The tax payers in the town of Chatham will be pleased to learn that the Commissioner is doing good work in expending the public taxes around and about his own residence where fully twenty people may pass for the next year. He is likewise extending a new sidewalk to the Lake or Park, while he very properly allows the centre of the town, where business is done and people wallow, to stand as it is.

Correction.
Ex-Major Morris—was offered the Deputy Adjutant Generalship of the camp at Sussex, but owing to business calls, he could not accept the offer.—Wednesday's Star.
"Ex-Major Morris" informs us the above notice is incorrect. So it is in a measure. What Mr Morris did say, to the gentlemen who gave the item to our Reporter was that he had been offered the "Assistant Deputy Adjutant Generalship," and in consequence of the press of business he had on hand, he could not accept the offer, &c. Considering however, that the item as published was entirely correct, with the exception of the omission of the words "assistant," that Mr Morris himself is the authority for the statement, it is hardly fair then to the esteemed Lieut. Colonel for a "local paper" to say the statement is "entirely without foundation."

OUR ST. JOHN PATRONS.
To day we publish some of a number of advertisements secured in St. John. That of
HOS. T. R. JONES
will be found, prominently published, in another column. We need not say to our readers, that the house of Hon. T. R. Jones, is one of St. John's large and solid mercantile institutions. His stock is immensely large, and so comprehensive in sort and grade as to offer inducements alike to the town retail merchant, or country shop keeper. In the line of cloths, blankets, shawls, camp blankets, &c., Mr. Jones' house cannot be excelled in the province, and we need only say to our many readers who purchase goods largely in St. John that it would be much to their interest to see Mr. Jones' stock before purchasing elsewhere. Hon. T. R. Jones, as we have said, is the head of this firm, he is likewise a legislative councillor—and while we have never had compliments for the Upper Chamber, we must say, and have often said, that Mr Jones is by far the ablest member of that body. He is a man of much foresight, of deep and stern convictions, and of great force of character. As in the legislative arena these qualities make him foremost among his compeers, so in the commercial world they likewise bring him to the front. It is because Mr Jones in the past has been such an able defender of the legislative council, while we and others have asked for its abolition, that the Star never has been sparing in its assaults on Mr Jones. But that is another thing. Mr Jones has hosts of friends and patrons in the North, and we commend our readers to see his advertisement, and his stock.
[We have to hold our notice of Mr. Thos. L. Bourke, and Mr. T. I. McMacKin over till next.]

Mr Henry Wyse is erecting a new bakery and dwelling house on Cunard Street.

STAR BRIEFS

There was "gray" frost yesterday morning.

The Priests maintaining Order.

ness, "nor" says our Reporter, "judging from the look of things had he."
MR. FAIRMAN
Keeps, as our readers know one of the best foundries on the Miramichi; and the proprietor has so much business on hand that only a couple of days ago we saw him in Chatham looking for help, to put through a new batch of orders that had come in. Mr. Fairman kindly showed our Reporter through the foundry, explaining the modus operandi of moulding, casting, etc., all of which was very interesting. There is a solid, business like air about the establishment, creditable to Mr. Fairman.—[Concluded in next.]

WHY THE LAND LEAGUE SPREADS AND FLOURISHES
In Enniskillen and Fermanagh at large. On the small farms, in arrears because of the successive bad harvests, one good harvest only has come to them since famine, a majority of the landlords have come down on the people and turned the screw, saying, "You had a good harvest, now pay up or go out." In fact, whether for bread or bayonets, the eyes of this people turn to America. It was a sight to see these poor cattle brought up from the pound. Their eyes were starting from their heads with fright. As they were forced along amid cheers for the Land League, groans for the agents, hoots for the members of the Emergency Committee, through the surging crowd that hustled and pushed, forced through a living lane that could not be kept open, each looked as if she would take a flying leap into the air, and become the cow that jumped over the moon.

DEATH OF DR. GREGORY.
In Fredericton on Tuesday last, shortly after eleven o'clock Dr Gregory, accompanied by his servant, a young lad named Minnyweather, drove down to the middle ferry landing, and waited for the arrival of the "Sarah H." to get a passage to the other side. As the ferry was approaching, he spoke to the lad, telling him that he might leave the carriage for a moment, as he himself wished to reach the horse, a three year old bay stallion, to go peacefully on to the ferry. The Dr. had been accustomed to have this young lad lead the animal aboard, as it always fared up and threatened damage when an attempt was made to drive it aboard. Young Minnyweather got out, and the Dr undertook to guide the horse down, turning him uphill again to make him obedient to the rein.

THE EXPLANATION OF OUTRAGES, and there would be more but for the Catholic priesthood. In speaking to some in Fermanagh who complained to me, I told them they had little to complain of by what the Donegal people of the hills had to vex them. They thought they had enough. One man of the well-to-do class, who had always paid his rent, who for his in his abilities as a farmer, asked for three months' grace in paying his rent at one term, because meeting it at the very day involved serious loss. He was refused in a most insulting manner. He joined the Land League because of this. He is under notice to quit for joining the Land League, and is now preparing to emigrate. This man will not leave his bitter feelings behind him when he does emigrate. The day I came to Manor Hamilton was after Mr. Dillon's arrest, which intensified feelings very much. There is one thing which people do not on the ground and near the people do not understand. Matters here have really gone so far between landlord and tenant that I think an outbreak of greater violence than has ever occurred in this land was imminent but for the constitutional resistance advised by the Land League. The day I came here was the day of a sale of cattle for rent, and a collision between the law and the people was apprehended. I felt reluctant to leave Fermanagh without seeing the poorer districts, I saw so many very poor people attending market with asses, harnessed with straw harness, carrying wicker creels loaded with what they had to sell. Between Enniskillen and Manor Hamilton I saw the first mudwalled cottage I ever saw. The land appeared worse, more barren in places, led to grass more extensively, and the grass often had the green brown tint to be seen in Canada, instead of the rich emerald that the good grass lands wear in Ireland. Manor Hamilton boasts of a ruined castle of great extent cloaked with ivy, built by one of the early Hamiltons, who got a grant of the confiscated lands and built this castle to defend

THE NEWCASTLE BUSINESS MEN
MR. JOHN BRANDER
Needs no newspaper paragraph to add to his popularity as a business man. His store is well stocked with a fine selection of variety goods. The dry goods and clothing department is well kept up, and the stock on hand is of the best quality—selling low, and at easy terms. Besides, Mr. Brander has a grocery and provision department which is up to the needs of his customers. To keep pace with the increasing business Mr. Brander has lately added 30 feet to the rear of his building.
MR. JOSEPH HAYS.
Mr. Hays establishment is one of our prominent Miramichi houses. It is located in an excellent business position, while the stock which comprises dry goods of every description, ready-made clothing, groceries, choice wines and liquors is of the first, and most popular quality. Mr. Hays country trade is very large, while of the town trade, likewise, he gets no small share.
MR. HENRY HALL'S
Business, is a sound one. Our Reporter found him busy with his customers; meanwhile taking a glance through the establishment which he found well stocked with boots and shoes, the strong or the fine; ready-made clothing for hard, or those for easy wear, and a general and select line of provisions and groceries. Mr. Hall told our Reporter he had no reason to complain of busi-
