

Many Saving Opportunities For Christmas Shoppers Saturday.

WE HAVE COMPLETED PLANS to serve this Saturday the greatest number of Holiday Shoppers that were ever before attended to in one day at this Store. The displays of Christmas Goods, beyond all comparison, the most attractive and comprehensive we ever had, justify our expectations. Extra attendants will be called from the Wholesale Department, that the greatest possible number may be served to satisfaction. With all this we can scarcely hope to meet the requirements of the afternoon and night rush. We hope as many as can will shop in the morning.

Come to Me, Little One.

Come to me, little one, drowsy and dear;
Mother will spare me her darling awhile.
I am so lonely when twilight is here!
Lie on my bosom, and nestle, and smile.

I have no little one, dearie, like you.
No little hand to hold close in the night.
No one to dream of the lonely hours through.
No one to wake for when God sends the light.

You are so sorry? Oh, bless you, my sweet!
Dear little fingers that wipe off the tears!
Little soft body and little white feet.
How will they treat you—the terrible years?

Life is so fair to a baby like you.
All things are wonderful under the sun.
Rainbows are real, and all stories are true.
Would they might be so when childhood is done!

Wide little eyes that are questioning so.
Life is no stranger to you than to me.
The secrets worth knowing I never shall know.
The end of the rainbow I never shall see.

So, little drowsy one, nestle and sleep—
Lullaby, baby, O lullaby-low!
There always is peace in the dreams that are deep—
Lullaby, little one, lullaby-low.
—Elsa Barker.

Harmony in the Home.

The imperative need of harmony in home surroundings as well as in business life is being felt by thinkers more every day. It is impossible to do our best work in any atmosphere of confusion, and it is an almost invariable rule that illness and disturbed nerves are the penalty exacted if we allow ourselves to be drawn into conditions that do not spell harmony. Our home is our castle, and nothing should be allowed to enter therein that makes us unhappy.

There is no price too great to pay for harmony, for it means health, happiness, financial success to you and yours, the ability to help others and all through the gaining and holding the mental poise which is the peace of understanding.

Some of us have to be beaten with many stripes before we realize the need of and grasp the knowledge of harmony, but those who have already felt a longing for it, and pause to listen, will get the revelation and receive its gospel like a benediction.

The world's greatest need is its need for men—many men and womanly women. If we cannot make this contribution out other givings are of little worth. The world needs workers, but only honest workers, workers with solid principles and high ideals, not men who work society, but who do society's work. We have too many people who wax rhetorical about the dignity of labor with a capital "L," but not nearly enough who feel in the depth of their hearts and with all the force of their being the worth and value, the true dignity of labor, spelled with just an ordinary lower case "l."—Frederick Hamilton.

They All Work for Santa.

Fathers, Mothers, Grandparents and Children Who Make Toys.
Though Santa Claus begins getting ready for the next Christmas the minute he unharnesses his reindeer, yet he never could make enough toys to go around if he did not have a lot of people to help him.

In Germany there are several villages where everybody works at toy-making, not only the mothers, fathers and children, but even grandmothers and grandfathers. For generations these families have made toys—dolls, tin soldiers, doll furniture, little wooden wagons and wooden animals of all kinds. In many homes the children begin helping in this work when they are so small they can hardly sit at the common working table. Often a whole family will earn 60 cents a day.

CONVINCING

It is impossible for any argument in favour of Sunlight Soap to be more convincing than a trial of the Soap itself.

SUNLIGHT SOAP

TRY THE SUNLIGHT WAY.

The Organ.

On listening to a great organ, Honore de Balzac, that masterful delineator of human character, has been moved to speak as follows: "The organ is in truth the grandest, the most daring, and the most magnificent instrument invented by human genius. It is a whole orchestra in itself. It can express anything in response to a skilled touch. Surely it is in some sort a pedestal on which the soul poises for a flight forth into space, essaying on her course to draw picture after picture in endless series, to paint human life, to cross the infinite that separates heaven from earth. And the longer a dreamer listens to those giant harmonies the better he realizes that nothing save the hundred-voiced choir on earth can fill all the space between kneeling man and a God hidden by the blinding light of the sanctuary. The music is the one interpreter strong enough to bear up the prayers of humanity to heaven, prayer in its omnipresent moods, prayer tinged by the melancholy of many different natures, colored by meditative ecstasy, upspringing with the impulse of repentance blending with the myriad fancies of every creed. Yes, in the long-vaulted aisles the melodies inspired by the sense of things divine are beset with a grandeur unknown before, and decked with a new glory and might. Out of the dim daylight and the deep silence, broken by chanting of the choir in response to the thunder of the organ, a veil is woven for God, and the brightness of his attributes shines through it."

Despite the advent of the V-shaped blouse, with its long sleeves and the shortening of the waist line of the extension skirt, the new corsets are more empire than ever. They have not relaxed their slim lines or the rigid straightness over the hips and abdomen, but they are amazingly large at the waist.

The Season For Tact.

Thoughtlessness in Yuletide Gifts Often Shatters Friendships.

Many a pleasant friendship has been broken by ignorance of good form in gift-making. Many a social career has been nipped in the bud by a present ill chosen or wrongly sent. If you are rich and have some friend who has lost her money, be careful that your gift does not reflect your knowledge of her financial straits. Remember that somehow she will manage to buy the obviously necessary thing, while her heart still hungers for the dainty, the luxurious touches of life.

Again, there is the wealthy friend of your family to whom you brought letters of introduction when you came to town. She has not taken you into the bosom of her family, but occasionally at her large and general unctious she has entertained you. Choose no gorgeous gift in such a case. Rather send her a beautiful flower on Christmas morning with a well worded greeting or the newest book about which her world is surey talking.

108

Nox a Cold in One Day

At last a remedy has been discovered that will stop a cough, cure a cold, relieve asthma in a few seconds. It is called "108 Nox a Cold." Just you try it. 25c. a bottle. Sold by McMurdo & Co.

This season will see corsets of the most filmy textures, even if the other part of the gown is of plain, heavy material. Empire styles are responsible for this, for with the high waist line, which necessitates a short line and little material in the bodice, one can take all sorts of liberties with the corset decorations.
