Governor's Visit to Bell Island.

Yesterday their Excellencies Gov ernor and Mrs. Davidson visited Bell Island where His Excellency cut the first sod for the new Tramway. The weather being all that could be desired the trip to the Iron Island must have been exceptionally pleasant to the Vice-Regal party. They left the city yesterday morning accompanied by Capt. Beech, A.D.C., and Premier and Lady Morris in Parsons' automo-bile and proceeded to Portugal Cove where they boarded the s.s. Baleine which was placed at their disposal and n board of which were Rev. Father McGrath, Rev. John Stead, Rev. W. Arms, Ensign Tilley, President C. Taylor and members of the Bell Island Council, Magistrate Power, Mr Burroughs and Mr. Hard, represent-ing the Companies, Messrs. F. Berteau, Jackman, Costigan, Quigley, Rees, G, Stewart, Frederick Angel and J. B. Martin, also Mrs. Stead and Mrs. J. K. Bennett. On arrival at the Island the piers were crowded with people and the vice-regal party were given a right royal and hearty reception. The Island was gaily decorated in honor of the Governor's visit. The landing ook place at the public wharf after which the party were escorted to the proposed site of the new tramway. There His Excellency performed the eremony of turning the sod in the presence of a large and enthusiastic gathering. The next part of the programme was an address presented to the Governor by Mr. Fred Angel and which elicited a cordial response. The party than proceeded to Davidson Avenue, which was formally opened by His Excellency, after which lunch was partaken of at the residence o Mr. J. B. Martin. The next place visit ed was the Hespital then the mines drss was presented to His Excellence by Mr. C. F. Taylor, on behalf of th citizens of the Iron Island: Mrs. Davidson was presented with bouquet of flowers by the school child-ren. Following this a reception was held by the Governor and Mrs. David-son. Later all the miners of both companies were addressed on the foot ball field by the Governor and Premie the Nova Scotia Company's rooms After tea the vice-regal returned t Partugal Cove in the s.s.
