To-day's Messages.

TREACHEROUS DIPLOMACY.

LONDON, Feb. 9. Germany has been trying to detach one of the Allies from the extradition demand by offering to conclude a treaty with that Power, according to a statement attributed to Mathias Erzberger, German Vice-Premier and Minister of Finance, by the Daily Mail's Berlin correspondent.

DIVORCES MAY RE-MARRY.

VIENNA, Feb. 9. The marriage of divorcees will be instituted in Austrian Catholic Churches this month, by an announcement authorized by the Pope. Fears have been entertained here recently that Catholic divorcees would leave the church altogether, because at present priests are directing them to re-marry before registrars.

AGREEING TO TREATY TERMS.

BERLIN, Feb. 9. Philip Scheidemann, former Secretary of Foreign Affairs, writing in the National Zeitung, says that since the Government, with the approval of Parliament, had signed the Peace Treaty, it had tried to fulfill the conditions imposed, but since June last it had seen that fulfilment was impossible. Herr Auer, former Minister of the Interior, says he is well disposed towards the Allies and will place no difficulties in the way of the German Government handing over the persons demanded.

FIRE'S HOLOCAUST.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 9. At least 25 are dead, with some persons still missing, and thirty injured, some seriously, was the toll taken by a fire which early this morning swept through the Berkshire Apartment Hotel here.

THOMAS PREDICTS CRASH.

LONDON, Feb. 9. J. H. Thomas, the railway workers leader, says that the state of the world is such that unless something is done speedily a crash will come, when nobody will suffer more than the workers. He says that British workmen must work one quarter harder than before the war, the French twice, and the German eight-times harder.

WIRE TROUBLE AGAIN.

HALIFAX, N.S., Feb. 9. Wire trouble developed on land lines last night.

NEW INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE.

PARIS, Feb. 9. The three Scandinavian Nations have accepted the invitation of Allies to a Conference at the Hague on Feb. 16th, to discuss participation in a permanent court of international justice, provided for by article fourteen of the League of Nations covenant, the Christiania correspondent of Temps says. It is announced in Norwegian official circles, the Temps says, that the proposed court apparently is intended to try offenders against the laws of war.

RUMOURED FREELY.

LONDON, To-day. There is no confirmation forthcoming for the rumor that Sir Auckland Geddes, President of the Board of Trade is retiring, although political prophets freely assert it.

APPLYING THE SCREWS.

BERLIN, Feb. 9. The German Government, according to the Zeitung Am Mittag, has notified Belgium that the German Belgian Financial agreement must be annulled, because of Belgium's participation in the extradition demand.

KOREANS ROUTED JAPS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9. Official despatches, received here to-day, said a force of 2,000 Koreans armed principally with equipment furnished by the Bolsheviks, crossed into Northern Korea from Kirin, Manchuria, and attacked the Japanese post of seven hundred men, killing three hundred and routing the remainder. According to these despatches the attack was the initiation of an active rebellion in Korea.

Laugh and Grow Fat.

"That's a beautiful stained-glass window."
"Yes; it was given by Mrs. de Riche, whose pony is just below. She wanted something to suit her complexion."
"Dora must have suffered some terrible disappointment. One never sees her smile now. What is the matter?"
"Two front teeth pulled."

She: "I don't like Slaterry. Please don't bother me, Charlie."
He: "When I tell you that you are the best girl in the world, that isn't Slaterry's motto voice—'It's & He.'"
