Linesmen Injured.

FELL 20 FEET WHEN POLE BROKE.
Yesterday evening, two electric light linesmen named Donnelly and Dawe had a narrow escape from being killed. They, with others, under the supervision of Mr. John Day were replacing poles near O'Brien's Bridge, Lond Pond Road. The two men were on the arm of the old pole disconnecting the light wires, when without warning it gave way, but luckily the men fell on either side of the stick as otherwise they would have been killed. Mr. Day, when he saw that the men were injured, rushed to Smithville, from where a doctor and the ambulance were summoned. Nurse Hiscock, who was passing in the road, attended to the injured men until the arrival of Dr. Fallon, who after an examination found that both were seriously shaken up. Dawe having his arm dislocated, while Donnelly's nose was badly battered. They were taken to the hospital in the ambulance.

Wedding Bells.

REID—PAYNE.

A very quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the Methodist Church, Heart's Delight, on Wednesday, Oct. 6th, by the Rev. E. Broughton, when Mr. William Ernest Payne, of the Western Union Cable Staff, Heart's Content, was united in matrimony to Miss Nellie Reid, of Heart's Delight, a former employee of the same company. The bride looked charming in a costume of navy serge, with fawn georgette hat, and carried a beautiful bouquet of carnations and fern. As the strains of the wedding march were being played by Mrs. (Rev.) Saint, the bride entered the church leaning on the arm of her brother-in-law, Mr. H. E. Harnum, who acted as father-giver. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. H. E. Harnum, while the groom was ably supported by his cousin, Mr. G. R. Rabbitts, of Heart's Content. After the ceremony the wedding party drove to the home of the bride's mother, where a sumptuous repast was partaken of and the usual toasts duly honored. The groom's present to the bride was a set of fox fur, to the bridesmaid emerald and pearl pendant, and to the best man gold cuff links. The bride and groom were the recipients of many valuable and useful presents, including a purse of gold presented to the bride from her co-workers of the staff, also many congratulatory messages, showing the esteem in which they were held. The happy couple left on Thursday morning's train for Holyrood and Brigus, where the honeymoon will be spent.—Com.
