CHICAGO.
Chicago, July 18.—First-class demand, a strong feeling at St. Louis, a decrease in the estimated receipts, a better feeling in the stock market, caused by a rise in the wheat market today. Corn—Not a great amount of business was transacted, but a steady undertone of the light trade. Oats were strong and firm, influenced by good buying, light receipts and an advance in the English cables. Provisions opened dull and ruled so throughout the day.
