THE BRIDEGROOM FAINTED.

Startling Scene at a Wedding Held in Grand Army Hall, Elizabeth.ELIZABETH, Nov. 23.—Mr. Nathan Lubinsky, of Worcester, Mass., was married the other evening in Grand Army Hall to Miss Sarah Rosenthal, a daughter of Morris Rosenthal, a business man of Wall street, this city. Rabbi Silverman had hardly pronounced the binding words that united the couple when the bridegroom fell forward and lay apparently dead at the feet of the bride.The hall was filled with guests, and the screams of the women almost caused a panic. The bride fell swooning into the arms of the bridesmaid. She quickly regained consciousness, while the bridegroom was carried into an adjoining room.
She could not be kept from him, and her grief was heartrending.After several minutes Lubinsky opened his eyes and showed signs of returning consciousness, but it was a long time before he was able to sit up and comfort the bride.
Then the festivities were begun again, but the merriment was only half-hearted.
Lubinsky is a hearty and strong young man, but he had fainted all day, and this, with the excitement of the event, caused him to faint.At midnight the bride and bridegroom had entirely recovered from the incident, and they started for their future home in Worcester.It is now asserted that the excitement which led to the fainting was caused by the refusal of the bridegroom to pay a fee to a woman who said she had introduced him to the bride. Raising she would not get her money, the aged match-maker demanded a settlement while the couple were yet at the altar. Lubinsky is proud, and the demand overwhelmed him.A bottle of Angerstein's Bitters to flavor your lemonade or any other cold drink will keep you free from dyspepsia, Colic, Diarrhea and all diseases originating from the digestive organs. Be sure to get the genuine Angerstein's, manufactured by Dr.
J. G. B. Angerstein & sons.

IMPORTANT!

"Win a Crown and wear it" is a very good motto. HEINTZMAN & CO. having worked for and obtained a reputation as first-class piano manufacturers, do not feel that they are called upon to share it with any other firm, was by fallacious argument try to make the public believe that the piano they make is as good as that of THE HEINTZMAN, or that it is like "Heintzman." The public and intending purchasers especially, are asked to bear in mind that there is only one HEINTZMAN & CO. Piano. Our trade mark is registered, therefore do not be induced to buy a piano unless it bears the good old name of "Heintzman & Co." This is a safe guarantee that the piano bearing it is reliable in every particular. We have some new and beautiful designs in stock at our London Ware-rooms, "C. P. M. H." 189 Dundas street. Also some excellent bargains in second-hand Pianos and Organs by other makers. Inspection invited, terms easy.H. W. BURNETT, Manager for

LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

—Mrs. Charles Frith is visiting her parents in North Toronto.—The holiday traffic on the various roads yesterday was very large.—Mr. Chris. B. Robinson, representing several Toronto publications, is in the city.—Miss Jennie Bishop will be tendered a benefit concert in Victoria Hall on Dec. 1.—The rough weather of yesterday caused the Gun Club of the G. T. R. to forego their first annual shoot.—Miss Rosy Alexander, of Calgary, at present a student at Alma College, is visiting Mrs. P. McVean, corner Central avenue and Colborne street.—The Baird Dramatic Company appeared at the Grand yesterday afternoon and evening before audiences that filled the houses. The popular New England play, "Josh Whitcomb" will be repeated tonight and to-morrow afternoon and evening.—John McCullough appeared before Squire Lacey on Wednesday night to answer for the non-attendance of his little boy at school, who, McCullough said, was always sent, but would not go. The case was enlarged to allow of the accused getting security.—A police official, who has had an extended local experience, said that yesterday was the quietest Thanksgiving Day he had ever known in the city. No drunks were arrested. Three young men, however, were apprehended for fighting.—Large crowds enjoyed the roller skating at Westminster rink yesterday afternoon and evening.—The night of the pasteurized milk was highlighted by the music of a brass band and an exhibition of fancy skating by Fred Haylock, of this city, which was remarkably clever. The last roller carnival, prior to the ice season, will be held Monday night.—There were dances and parties in almost every section of the city on Thanksgiving eve. Conclave No. 2, Knights of Sherwood Forest, held their first annual assembly in the banquet hall of the Masonic Temple. About 100 couples participated, and made a very pretty sight in the nicely decorated and well-lighted hall.
The committee in charge of the affair were Sirs Knights A. Sutherland, Capt. Fugh, J.
Malone, A. C. Sutherland, Lyons, R. J.
Parkinson, and A. Russell.—A Pawtucket, R.I., dispatch the other day, printed in these columns, appealed for information of one Charles F. Kirby, of London, Ont. His brother in Birmingham, England, had seen a notice to that effect in a paper there. An ADVERTISER reporter has made inquiries and searched the death certificates in the City Hall, but that name did not appear in any of them. It is since learned that Kirby sailed for England from Montreal the other day, and he is probably in Birmingham by this time. In Toronto he had $30,000, his savings during his everyday stay in America.

Overcome by Gas.

Isaac Duffield, assistant foreman of the City Gas Company, was overcome by gas on Wednesday, and had a narrow escape from death. He was helping to put in a service at the corner of Waterloo and Huron streets, and fell over at his work.
He was carried to the sidewalk, and in about half an hour was in a position to be removed to his home on Thames street.

A Hare and Hound Chase.

The Y. M. C. A. boys' branch had a paper chase yesterday afternoon, in which over 50 followed the trail. Almost six miles were traversed. A start was made at Victoria bridge and the route lay through South London to the Cove. One of the hares was here overtaken. The other two continued the chase until they got to Clark's bridge. A supper was served in the association rooms. All enjoyed this portion of the programme, which had been thoughtfully provided by the boys' committee. The hares were Frank, Frank Dixon and George and Edward Hannah.

Quiet Day.

The Bishop of Huron has arranged to hold a day of meditation, thought and prayer for the clergy, on Wednesday next, in London. The morning session, from 10 to 1 o'clock, will be held in Huron College.
The following subjects will be discussed:
"The Christian ministry and the Holy Spirit"; "The dispensation of the Eternal Word in the absence of our blessed Lord"; "Holiness in service"; "Parochial visiting and the power of example"; "The power of the second advent on our lives." The afternoon session will be from 3 to 6 p.m. at St. Paul's Cathedral.
The preacher will be the Rev. A. H. Baldwin, M.A., rector of All Saints' Church, Toronto. On Thursday, Nov. 30, to commemorate the tenth anniversary of the Holy Communion will be celebrated at 11 a.m. In the afternoon the bishop will hold an "A. H. Home" from 4 to 7 p.m. at "Bishop-stave." Communion will be the same event.

Thanksgiving Supper and Concert.

A Thanksgiving supper and concert was held in the London West Methodist Church last night. The ladies of the church prepared a spread which was most tempting, for which they deserve great credit, while a choice programme was rendered by the members of the choir, under the leadership of Mr. M. S. Armstrong. Revs. Mr.
Clement and W. Rigby, both spoke words of encouragement to the congregation on the occasion attending their efforts, and Rev. J.
W. Anis made a humorous address on the different kinds of talkers. Among these,Lily White Water White Oil is a reliable oil for family use. Ask your dealer for it. They will keep it to hand for you.
Over 100 dealers sell it in this city.

EMPIRE OIL COMPANY.

he said, were to be found the scandalous talker, the helpful talker, the never-ending talker and the pompous talker. The third mentioned of the list was liable to wind up his or her tongue and go away, but still keep it going. The pompous talker was one who would hit you with a word that would do more injury than a blow. This class would never use a word of one syllable where a word of four syllables could be worked in, and where a fourteen-syllable word could be used it was always preferred.

All the meetings will be held at 8 p.m. prompt.

On the Hounds' Trail.

There was not as large an attendance as expected at the annual Thanksgiving meeting of the hounds at the Kennels yesterday.The run, however, was none the less enjoyable. The route, which was almost seven miles in length, extended in a circle.
The hounds, after having gone east past Adelaide street, north some distance, west over undulating farm lands, was made at the Priddis lot. Among the riders were Miss Helen Gibbons, Major George Gibbons, Major A. M. Smith, George Massie, F. Sherrill, Capt. Denison, Westcott Gray, Don, Palmer Smith and J. B. Kilgour.
When the Kennels had been reached again a lunch was served to the members of the club and several of their friends, who had assembled. Among the latter were: Mrs.
George Gibbons, Mrs. Edward Clegburn, Miss Clegburn (Brantford), Mrs. Cumberland, Mrs. E. B. Smith, Miss Anna Woods, M. A. Machett, Miss Kingsmill (Toronto), Miss Houston (Toronto), Miss Millie Harris, Miss Helen Gibbons, Dr. Hanavan. Mr. J.
B. Kilgour, who has filled the position of treasurer to the organization in an efficient manner for some time, was toasted. He is about to leave the city for Chatham, and general regret was expressed by the members present at the contemplated severance of what has been to them an enjoyable tie.

In Good Condition.

The annual inspection of the Seventh Battalion Fusiliers took place yesterday, the battalion assembling at 9 a.m. sharp.The companies were formed up under Lieut.-Col. Payne, with Major Hayes acting as right major and Capt. Kingsmill as adjutant. Lieut. Fitzgerald, acting adjutant.The battalion was marched to the park and drawn up in the line awaiting the arrival of the D. A. G., Col. Smith. At 10 o'clock sharp the deputy adjutant-general approached the line and was received with a general salute, and from that time until 2:30 o'clock the inspection was kept up.Col. Payne put the battalion through several movements, forming quarter column, opening to column, closing to quarter column, quarter column wheeling three.Major Hayes then took charge and put the battalion through several movements, with detail, deploying, forming column in a central company, advancing in column closing to quarter column. Col. Payne again took command and marched the battalion to the drill shed, and each company was then put through company drill by their officers. Section commanders also were examined in drill, especially with regard to their section work.Capt. Graham drilled No. 1 Company with detail; Lieuts. Denison and Thomas No. 2 Company; Lieuts. Taylor and Allison No. 3 Company; Color-Sergeant, Hayman No. 4 Company (in Capt. Booker's absence).
Capt. Kingsmill, Lieut. Magee and Lieut.
Grave were in command of No. 5 Company, while Capt. Dawson and Lieut. Fitzgerald handled No. 6. The muster parade was then commenced, District Paymaster Col. Dawson calling the roll, Major Mc-Millan, regimental paymaster, being also present. No. 4 was the only company having the full complement of 52 men, and the muster in which the drill was executed reflected great credit on Color-Sergeant Hayman. No. 2 comes next in numbers, but are pressed hard by No. 1. A trip through the armories makes plain the fact that all companies are training hard to attain supremacy. Col. Smith complained of the condition of the drill shed, it being altogether insufficient when a company turns out 42 strong. The work of the battalion, as a whole, was satisfactory.

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., May 1, 1893.

Isaac Williams Company, London:

Dear Sirs,—About a week ago I received a copy of the London Free Press sent by my youngest brother, who lives on Horton street, No. 428, and which contained some very pleasing news to me, when I read that your wonderful medicine had saved my eldest brother, who lives on lot 15, cont. 15, London township, near the village of Hurr. I know too well about his sickness, that he has spent quite a fortune on doctors' bills, all without any relief. I felt pained unless relief came very soon that he would soon be in his grave, and I am ready to believe that your wonderful medicine, "Royal Crown Remedy," has saved his life, and I am pained to know that I still live and enjoy life and health. Since I have received the copy of the ADVERTISER of April I have shown it to a great many of my neighbors and explained the case to them, and of the wonderful cure of my brother (John Weir). Several of my neighbors have requested me to write you regarding your "Royal Crown Remedy," as they cannot see it here. I suppose we will have to send it to you for it. I might further say that one of my neighbors came here to this place from Detroit about the same time that I left the city of London. He is about 55 years of age and well known here, and is in very poor health, and it seems to me that his ailment is similar to that of my brother, John Weir. I have highly recommended "Royal Crown Remedy" to him, and he appears quite anxious to give your remedy a trial; so he with others requested me to write you for particulars, which will be as follows: What do you sell your Remedy for, per half dozen?
In bottles, or how do you sell them wholesale? How do you send—by freight or express? Will there be any duty, etc.? I will be pleased to hear from you as soon as possible. Sincerely,
R. Weir.
