Like a Waterfall After the Grip

Tremendous Roaring in the Head
Pain in the Stomach.

"To C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass."

"Two years ago I had a severe attack of the Grip, which left me in a terribly weak and debilitated condition. Last winter I had another attack and was again very badly off, my health nearly wrecked. My appetite was all gone, I had no strength left, felt tired all the time, had disagreeable roaring noises in my head, like a waterfall. I also had severe headaches and

Severe Sinking Pains
in my stomach. I took medicines without benefit, until having heard so much about Hood's Sarsaparilla, I concluded to try it, and the result is very gratifying. The disagreeable effects of the Grip are gone, I am free from pains and aches, and believe is surely curing my catarrh. I recommend it to all." GEO. W. COOK, St. Johnsbury, Vt.

A Backward Skater's Challenge—Curling at Toronto.

St. John, N. B., Jan. 16.—Charles Gillespie, of this city, claims the amateur backward skating championship of the world, and is willing to meet Hagen, who defeated Breen at Minneapolis Saturday in a backward championship skating match. If Hagen agrees a match will be arranged to take place here.

HAGEN BEATS BREEN.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Jan. 16.—Harold Hagen, the Norwegian skater, again defeated Fred Breen, the Canadian, in the mile skating race today. Breen got the best of the start, but Hagen soon made up all he had lost. For the first two laps Breen seemed to be holding his own, but at the end of the third Hagen gained rapidly, winning the race by 40 yards in 2:49 4/5. Breen's time was 2:54 1/2. The third and last of the series of races (five miles) will be skated Wednesday afternoon.

CURLING.

TORONTO, Jan. 16.—Oshawa beat Prospect Park to-day, three rinks a side, by 52 to 40.

Two rinks each of the Seaford, St. Marys and Stratford Curling Clubs played at Stratford on Saturday in the primary competition for the Ontario tankard, resulting in St. Marys being the winner in this group.

ATHLETICS.

THOMPSON WON.

ELMHURST, N.Y., Jan. 16.—A Greco-Roman wrestling match occurred in this city tonight between Mervine Thompson and Martin L. Muldoon. The men wrestled for 1 hour and 25 minutes before the first fall was secured by Thompson. Muldoon then announced that he would not wrestle another bout, and the match was awarded to Thompson.

CAME DOWN WITH A RUSH.

Collapse of a Paper Warehouse—Three Men Killed and One Badly Injured.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 16.—About 5:54 this afternoon the four-story brick building at 517 Commerce street, occupied as a salesroom and warehouse by the Nixon Brothers Paper Company, collapsed. Seven men were in the building at the time. Three were buried in the ruins and killed. One was badly hurt and three escaped uninjured. The dead are John McKenna, Joseph Wallace and Albert W. Marker. Albert Gales, a colored porter, was injured internally. At the time mentioned an ominous cracking of splintering joists was heard, and then with terrible suddenness the whole upper part of the building came down with a rush upon the men on the first floor. The cause of the collapse was probably the weight of paper stored in the upper floors. The building is a total ruin. The loss is about $30,000.

A VERITABLE family medicine box, BECHAM'S PILLS.

Dr. Walter Raleigh introduced the use of Becham's Pills in Europe centuries ago, but if he could see the smoke a Highland kiltie cigar manufactured by H. McKee & Co., London, he would be astonished to consider himself one of the greatest benefactors of his race. It is a five-cent pill and has no superior on the market. The composition is of the best and purest materials, the workmanship of the best and the flavor delicious. Try them.

The reporter's old friends, the Fire Fiend and the Frost King, have entered into a combine to wipe out towns which allow their waterworks to freeze.

Book's Cotton Root Compound.

A recent discovery by a bold physician, successfully used monthly by thousands of ladies, is the only perfect cure for all the ills of the female system. It is a five-cent pill and has no superior on the market. The composition is of the best and purest materials, the workmanship of the best and the flavor delicious. Try them.

THE DEATH CHAIR.

Most Successful Killing in the History of Electrocution.

DANMORA, N. Y., Jan. 16.—When Loth, the murderer of a defenseless woman, was to be electrocuted to-day, the State electrician, at the signal given by Dr. Ransom, sent 1,720 volts into the victim. The body stiffened up against the straps and as the voltage was decreased it resumed its normal attitude. An interval of a few seconds elapsed during which there was not the slightest indication of life, not even a twitching of the muscles, and then Dr. Ransom again raised his hand, the electrician responded, and the body stiffened up against the straps once more, the electrician reducing the current until finally it ceased.

The physicians then examined the body and declared the man dead. The apparatus used was the same as that used at other State electrocutions. The only innovation was the introduction of the diminishing current, which the State electrician believes prevents any muscular or nervous reaction.

Electrician Davis says the electrocution was the most successful in the history of electrocutions and that there were no marks of any kind on the body.

BEN BUTLER'S BURIAL.

More Than 20,000 People Gaze on the Remains

Of the Famous Soldier, Politician and Lawyer—His Body Interred at Lowell, Mass.

LOWELL, Mass., Jan. 16.—It was barely 3 o'clock this morning when Huntington Hall, where the remains of Gen. Butler reposed in state, was opened to the public. There were thousands waiting to look upon the dead, and more than 20,000 people gazed at the face of the departed warrior. The greater portion of this throng of sight-seers came from out of town. The trains were packed, and the streets were filled with sleighs and vehicles of every description. The crush on the sidewalks was frightful, and the police found it difficult to prevent injury to the women and children. One woman fainted and was carried unconscious into a neighboring store. A child was trampled upon and was carried into a doctor's office with a badly sprained arm, while many women emerged from the crowd with torn clothing. Nothing like this crush has ever before been seen in Lowell.

Although there were insignia of mourning on all the buildings in the neighborhood there was little semblance of it in the crowd. Fakers were present in scores, loudly calling their wares as they sold pictures of the dead general and brief biographical sketches of his life. At 11:30 the hall was closed and the body of Gen. Butler was surrendered by the G. A. R. to the State military authorities. To them was assigned the duty of giving it a military burial. Only those who held cards of admission secured entrance to the church, and they numbered only 850. Among them were: Gov. Russell and staff, the Governor's Council and the committee of the Legislature, Gov. Banks, Ames and Brackett and the surviving members of Gen. Butler's council in 1883, Gov. Smith and staff of New Hampshire, and members of the State Legislature, Gen. John Palmer, past commander-in-chief of the G. A. R., came from Albany, and the present commander of the regiment represented by Inspector-General Goodale and aides.

At the church Rev. Dr. Chamber and his assistant, Rev. George S. Sinclair, conducted the services, the sacred choir chanting selections from the 39th and 90th psalms. It was the regular Episcopal burial service. More than 150 carriages took part in the cortege, and when the escort arrived at the grave with the casket the last of the followers had but just left the church.

Gen. Peach and staff occupied a knoll beside the troops, and the volley fired were grouped near the grave. Rev. Dr. Chamber concluded the religious services, the Masons gave a short ritual, and the volley was fired.

BOSTON, Jan. 16.—As a mark of respect to the late Gen. Butler, the Legislature adjourned from Friday until Tuesday next.

S. & S.

Hopes raised by our advertisements are realized when the goods are inspected and put to the test of actual wear. You are aware, reader, that this is not your experience at all times and in all places.

Our stock of linen goods is moving, not as rapidly as we would desire, but it is moving, and that is something to be thankful for. They will go faster when the weather eases off a little and people begin to realize what is going on at our store.

We purpose taking stock at the close of this month. With us it is always an arduous task. To reduce the labor as much as possible, we will lay upon our counters many useful articles, which, no doubt, will be picked up rapidly, as they will be marked down for the occasion.

We have still on our tables the balance of our stock of Ulsters, Cloaks and Mantles. As the winter is not half over (indeed it seems as though it had just begun), do not conclude to wait till next season, when you will doubtless pay full price for it. We are anxious not to carry over these goods, and it is for this reason that we urge you to buy now. Your interests and ours are identical in this case. It's a saving to both.

Patrons living out of town are asked to write for samples. Should the samples suit, we will pay express charges on all orders of $5 and upwards.
