Entries for the race were to close yesterday and cars and drivers from all the countries composing the triple alliance and the triple entente, it was expected, would compete. The course was to be from Moscow through the Caucasus as far south as the Crimean peninsula and the Black Sea and return.

Chicago man has lived in the same house for 55 years; which explains why some people still go to see the Cub play.

A Western horseman at the track yesterday was discussing remarkable poker games. He told of one instance where the bluffer was bit.

In the game recently one of the players was a heavy loser, and when the seance broke up he, with marked reluctance, handed over to one of the players a check for his losses, and the recipient of it knew full well that it would be stopped next morning.

Then, over a bottle or two, an idea struck him.

"Say, old fellow," he said, sympathetically, "that's no game we had just now. I didn't want to win your money. See here! I'll tear up your check right now."

Which he proceeded to do, to the delight of the loser, and after swearing eternal friendship they parted.

Next morning the winner met his friends.

"Got the money, you fellows?" he exclaimed. "And now we winck up."

"Got it?" queried one. "Why, I saw you tear up his check!"

"Yes, I tore up the dummy, 'cos I knew for a certainty he'd stop the real one if I didn't."

And, furthermore, if when you are pronounced a winner, your subscription is found to be paid at least six months in advance, you will receive an additional 25 per cent cash. If you are found to be paid up ahead one full year, the prize value would be increased 50 per cent. If your subscription is found to be paid up two years ahead, the prize would be increased 100 per cent, that is, actually doubled. Then first prize would jump from $100.00 cash to $200.00 cash, and each of all the eighty-five prizes would be similarly doubled.
