JACK FITZPATRICK BEAT HIS FORMER TEAM MATES

Pitching For Guelph Yesterday He Handed London a 4 to 1 Beating—Finn and Deneau Opposed Him— Bierbauer's Stick Work Again Features.

Baseball tradition says that when a ball club releases a pitcher and he is signed up by another club in the same league, and is pitched against his and Craven sandwiched in former teammates, he invariably hands them a nice trimming in large-sized walk, a batsman hit and a wild heave packages. Maybe tradition is right and maybe it "ain't," but Simon Pure netted five runs. Kubat, who started Johnnie Fitzpatrick, the Buffalo Bad Man, was pitching to tradition yesterday to hurl for the Senators, was replaced and he won. Guelph 4, London 1. To those whose memory can go back far enough, it will not be necessary to explain that once upon a time not so very long ago, the aforementioned Rube Deneau. However, owing to several wide discrepancies in Mr. Fitzpat-Johnnie was a member of the much-maligned pitching department of one. cick's ability to pitch ball and his ability to win the games he pitched, Mr. never in trouble. Kopp's fielding in the Deneau was forced to apply the can, or present the tinware or whatever it is that causes a pitcher and his former manager to part company.

FITZ PITCHED GOOD BALL.

And so it came to pass that Mr. Fitzpatrick dusted out of these parts, and with that reckless abandon that had marked his pitching for the London club, signed up with one Louis Cook, who is camping in our midst at this writing. Thus it came about that "Fitz" was brought face to face again with his old pals, and maybe he didn't give them something to remember it by. Maybe he didn't pitch the kind of ball that would have earned him a life job with the London club, and maybe he didn't have his old-time playmates tied up in various attitudes of bewilderment and dismay. Maybe he didn't, but he won anyway, and so we are compelled to recount the doings of a losing game and record a victory for Johnnie Fitzpatrick. Finn Pitched for London. singles by Dunn and Daniels, coupled This may be the right paragraph to with "Dad" Stewart's wild throw to mention that opposed to Fitzpatrick the plate, brought in another tally. President Fitzgerald, of Canadian League, Acting as Scout For Toronto, Likes the London Twirlers-Dunlop May Also Be Given a Trial.

Canadian League, and scout for the Toronto International League club, was in attendance at the London-Hamilton game on Saturday, says the Boston. July 7.—Eddie Plank, who has been enjoying an almost uninterrupted series of victories, was given a severe shock at Fenway park in the second game between the Athletics and the Red terested in both players, and Fitzger-old made a trip to London series in old made a trip to London early in the week to see Heck perform. The result is that he will now be forced to lay off for a week least, his arm being so sore that he found it impossible to pitch at all to-Fitzgerald noticed early in Sat urday's game that the youngster was laboring under difficulties, and made the remark that he appeared to work as if he had a sore arm. Sure enough at the end of the game, Donohue discovered that he had a lump at the elbow joint the size of an egg. Under the circumstances, the Toronto scout was unable to figure anything on the youngster at all, and had to be content with what he saw of Heck, whom he thinks a great deal. Heck is a big strong chap, with a very fast breaking curve ball, and there is no doubt but that he will graduate into faster company before the season is over, Fitzgerald is of this opinion, and ton for a double-header on Wednesday. it would not be surprising to see the London southpaw grabbed by the To-

The good weather and the tight race has helped them all, and he expects the present season to prove the best yet enjoyed. He also looks for considerable business in the way of sales and drafts on players, while it is his opinion that the scrap for the pennant will not be settled for some time yet.

Hits, But Poor Work Behind Him Lost the Game.

Hamilton, July 7 .- Although they got out one lonely hit, the Kolts collected even runs off Bramble in the initial inn-Bramble allowed but four hits in the en-tire game, but errors by his team-mates practically gave the game to Hamilton, the visitors making nine miscues during the fray, Rube Schuyler was delegated to do mound duty for the Kolts, and he pounded vigorously by the visiting artillerymen, and only errorless ball by the locals saved the game for him. The visitors' infield played fagged ball throughout seven of Hamilton's nine runs being the result of errors. The final score was 9 to 3. Hamilton plays in Berlin tomorrow, and then both teams come back to Hamilton for a double header on Wednesdar.
