Count Apponyi Says Country Is Suffering From War's Ravages.

Vienna, Jan. 20.—(By the Canadian Fress.)—Acceptance of the t. eat, as drafted would mean "cultural downfall" for Hungary, Count Apponyi, the former Hungarian premier and head of the Hungarian preace delegation, who is returning to Budapest from Paris with the Allied peace terms, declared today. The count's assetion followed the expression of his belief that such a peace as was proposed for his nation could not last.

"Concerning internal physical conditions of Hungary," said Count Apponyi, "we have been pilliged of evrything. We had the hardships of war; secondly we had two communist administrations when all our money was spent abroad for propaganda; thi dly, the Rumanian robbed us of manufacturing machinery, even printing plants and railroad equipment, so that we now have but 27 locomotives. Our agricultural interests, which the central Europeans powers ruined by taking away our livestock, is in a condition of general devastation beyond the River Theis.

Two local aliens have been deported from here within the past few days, according to the presentment of the grand jury at the winter assize court at the courthouse, which was delivered to R. M. Meredith, C.J., the presiding judge, at 5 o'clock on Tuesday night.

It was a cold morning, and business was slow around the market weigh scales. A farmer residing on the outskirts of the city had just been in, had his small load of hay weighed, and received $30 a ton for it. One of the fire to warm his hands just as the door opened and two farmers, plus a lot of snow, blew in.
