BURG TEAM WINS

Special to The Advertiser. Sarnia, June 29. — In a veritable cloudburst that kept up during the whole game and which at times made it impossible to see the length of the field, the Sarnia and St. Marys intermediates played four overtime periods to a 5-5 tie before the game was called by Referee Parkinson. A small crowd braved the weather to see the game. The athletes played in mud that ranged between six and eight inches in depth where the field

Newcastle, N.S.W., June 29, — A scoreless draw was the outcome of the scoreless draw was the outcome of the fourth test match between the touring Canadian all-stars and a fomball team representing Australia played here this afternoon. It was a hard game played in a blinding rainstorm, and the seven thousand fans who witnessed the game saw an exciting finish, with both teams doing their utmost to tally. Both goals were in jeopardy many times, players of both sides just missing the posts by the narrowest of margins. The Canadians played splendidly under the circumstances and deserved a draw. Chapman was injured in the first minute of play and was of little use thereafter. Hood, Wilson, Armstrong, Noseworthy and Sandford did not play. The final test of the tour will be played at Adelaide South Australia on July 12.
